DOCTRINES THAT SHAPE OUR BELIEF AND PRACTICE

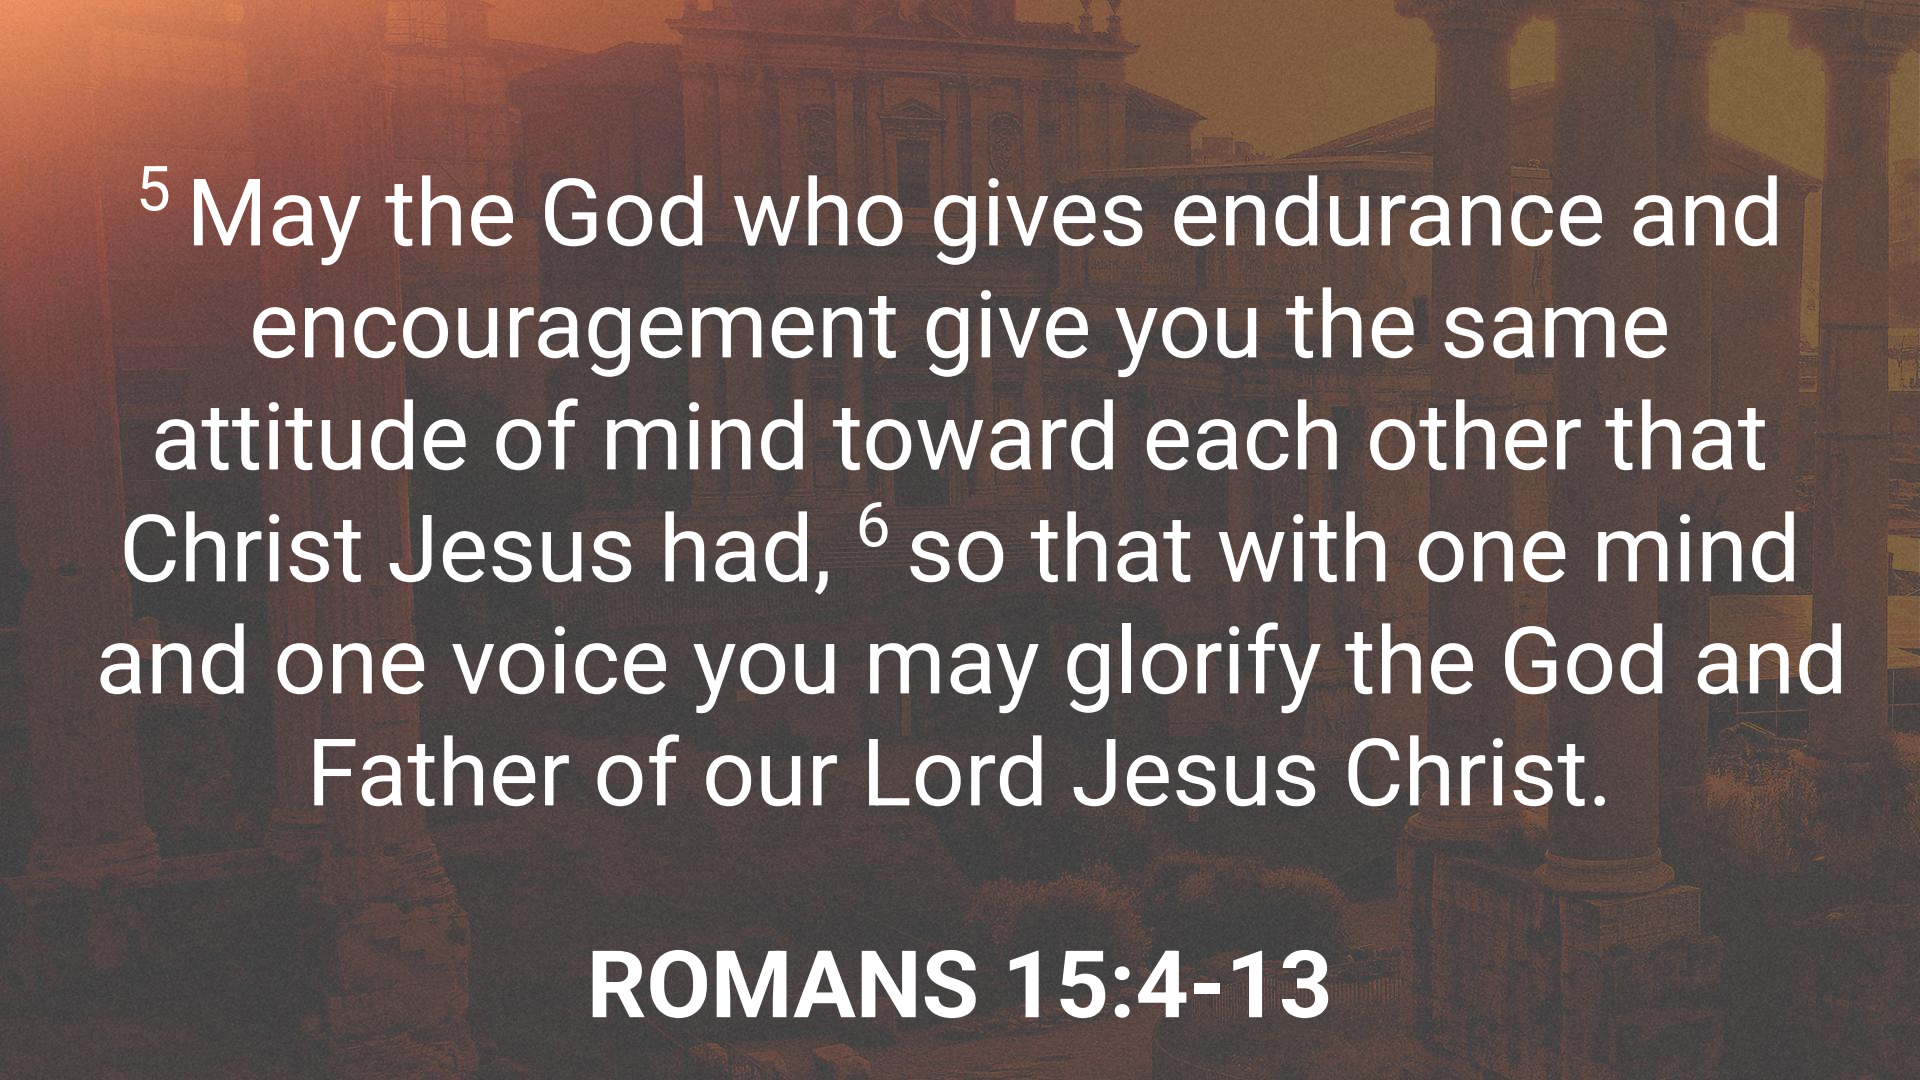

THE DOCTRINE OF SCRIPTURE

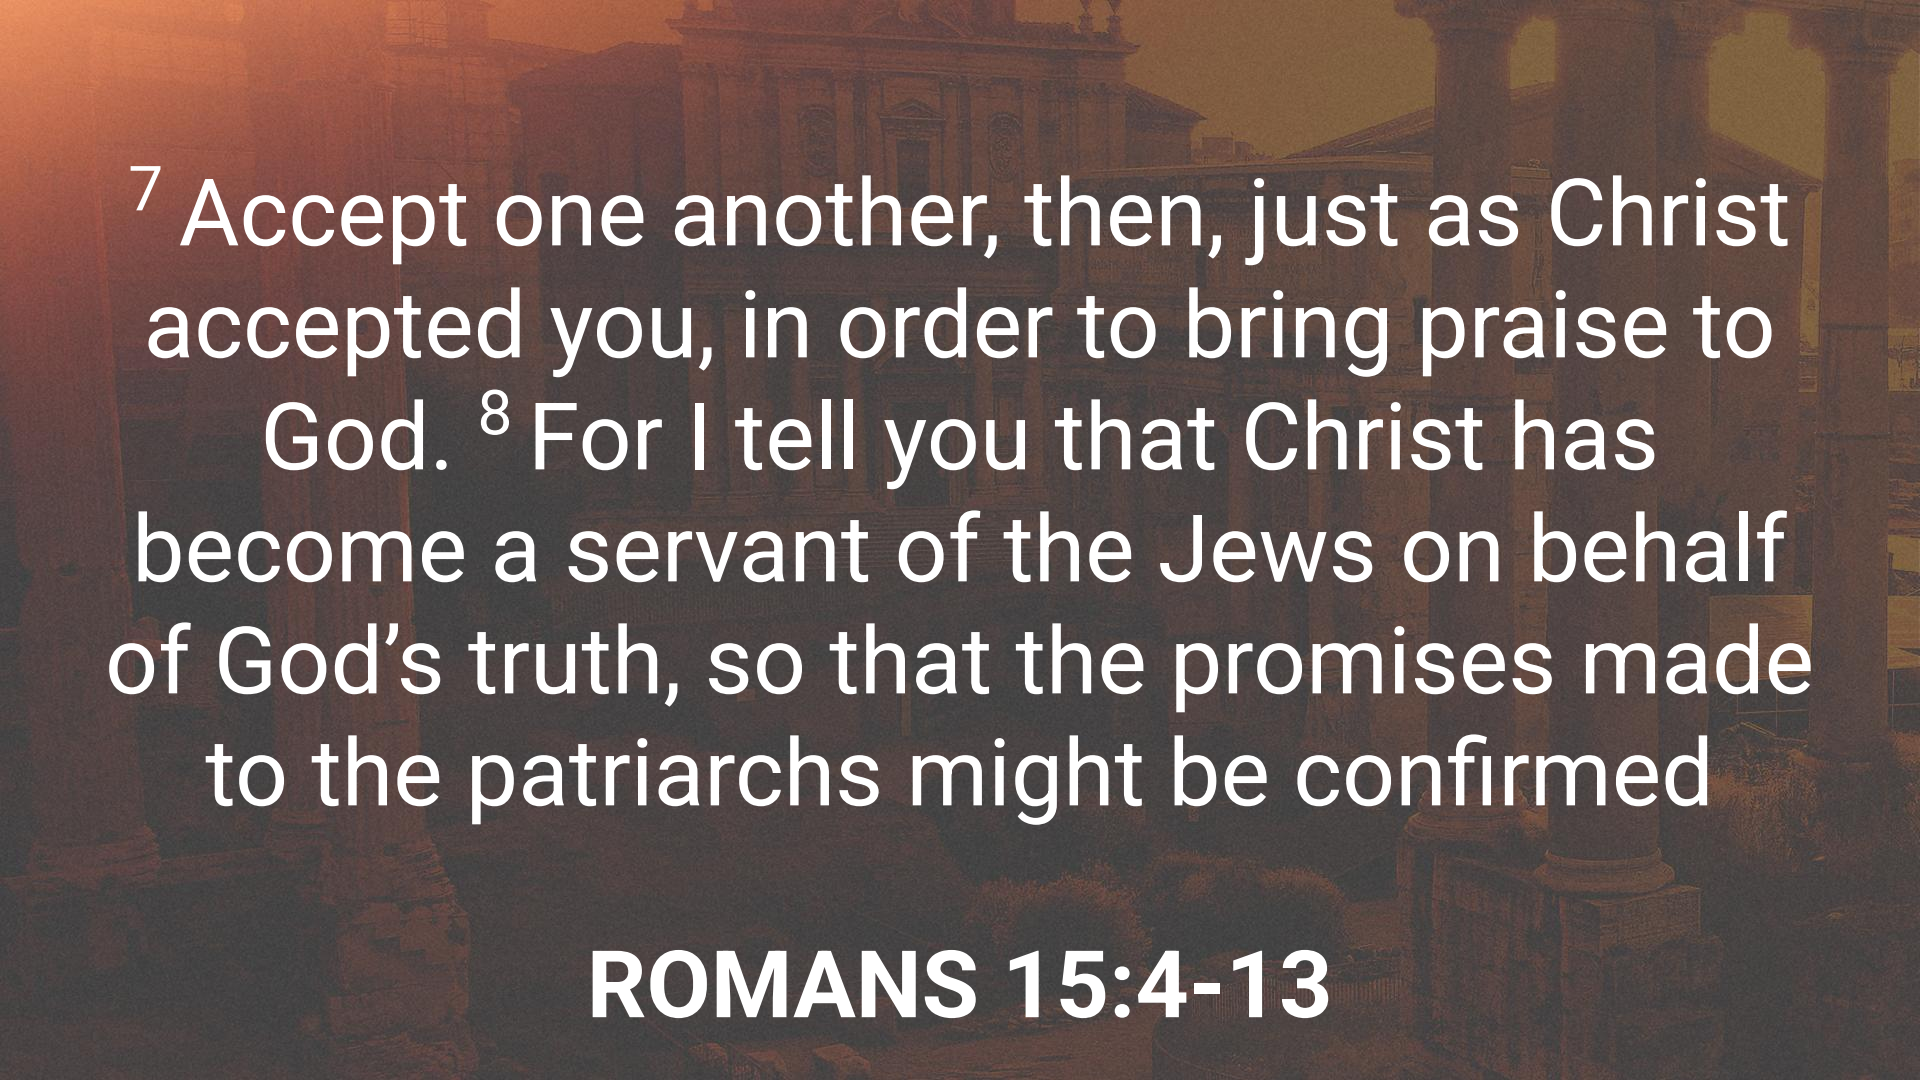

⁴ For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.

ROMANS 15:4-13

⁵ May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, ⁶ so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

ROMANS 15:4-13

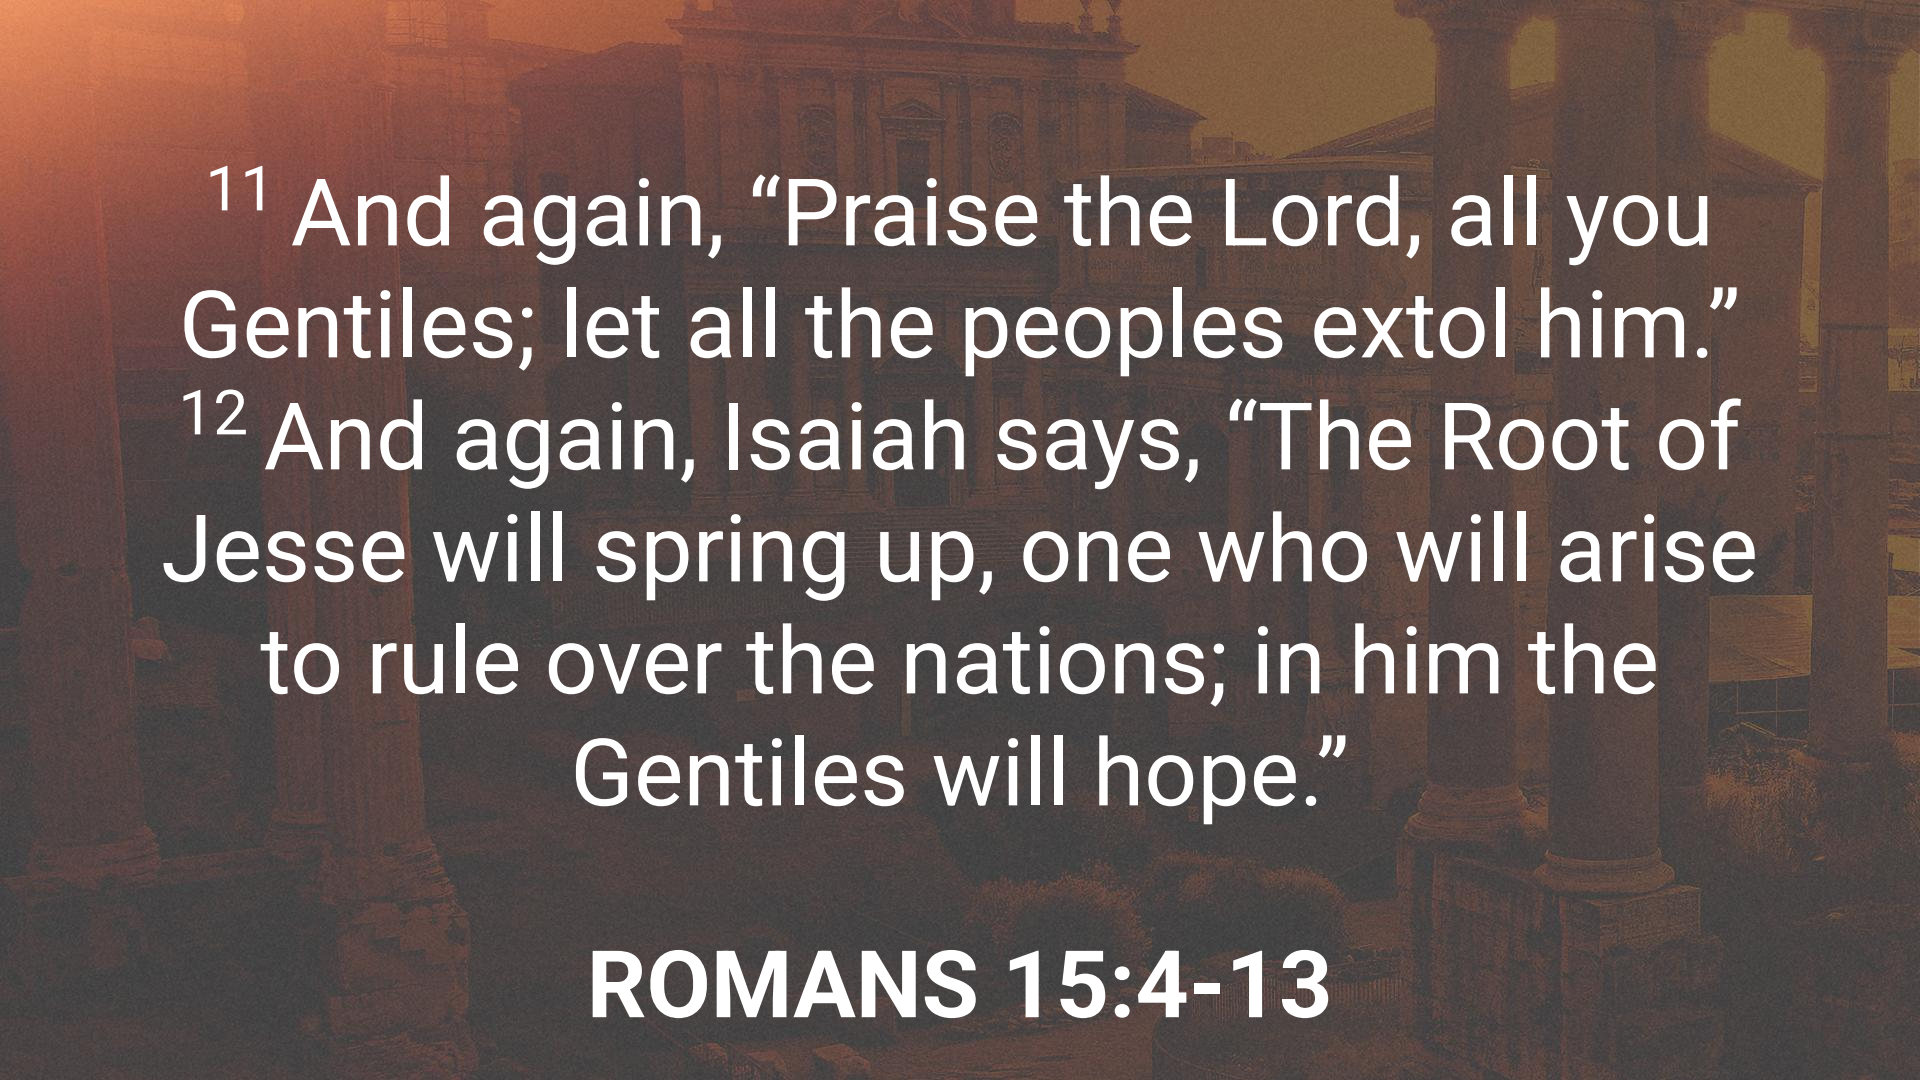

⁷ Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. ⁸ For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews on behalf of God's truth, so that the promises made to the patriarchs might be confirmed

ROMANS 15:4-13

⁹ and, moreover, that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written: “Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing the praises of your name.” ¹⁰ Again, it says, “Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people.”

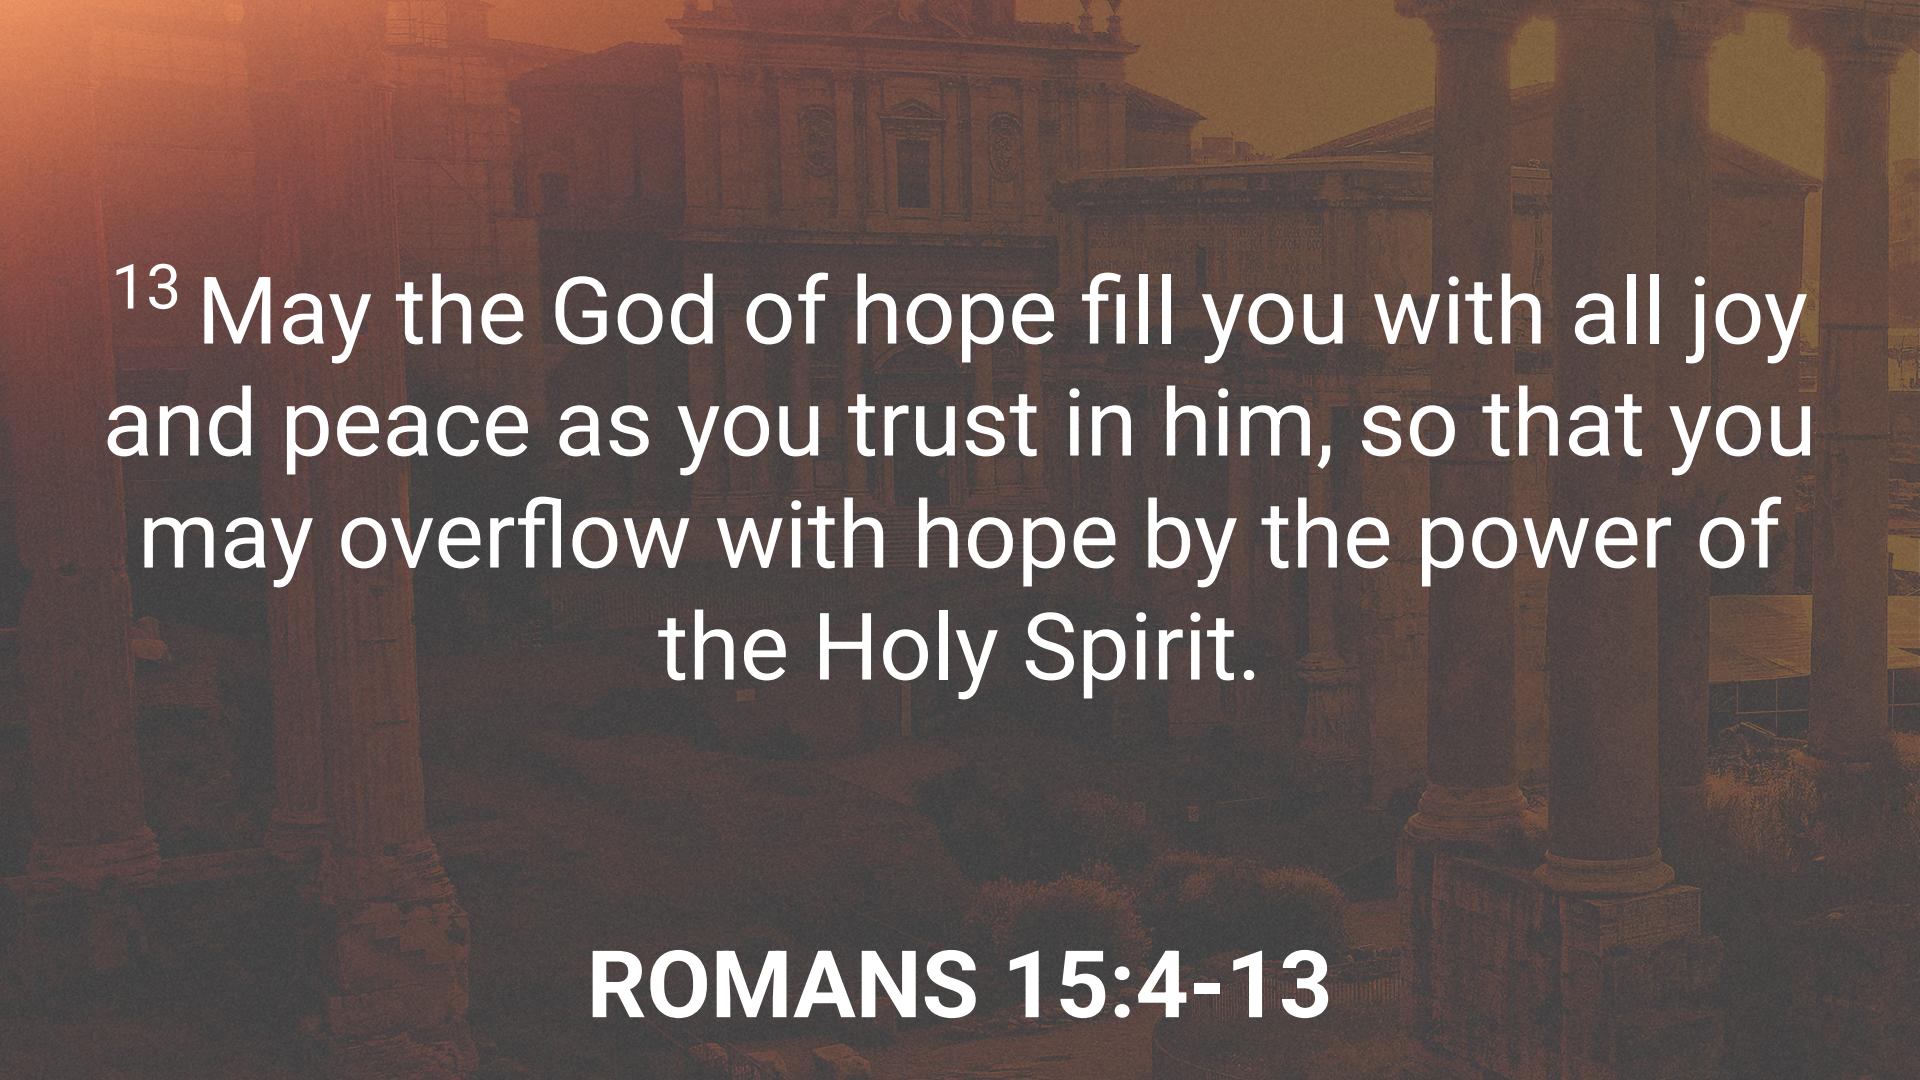

ROMANS 15:4-13

¹¹ And again, “Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; let all the peoples extol him.”

ROMANS 15:4-13

¹³ May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

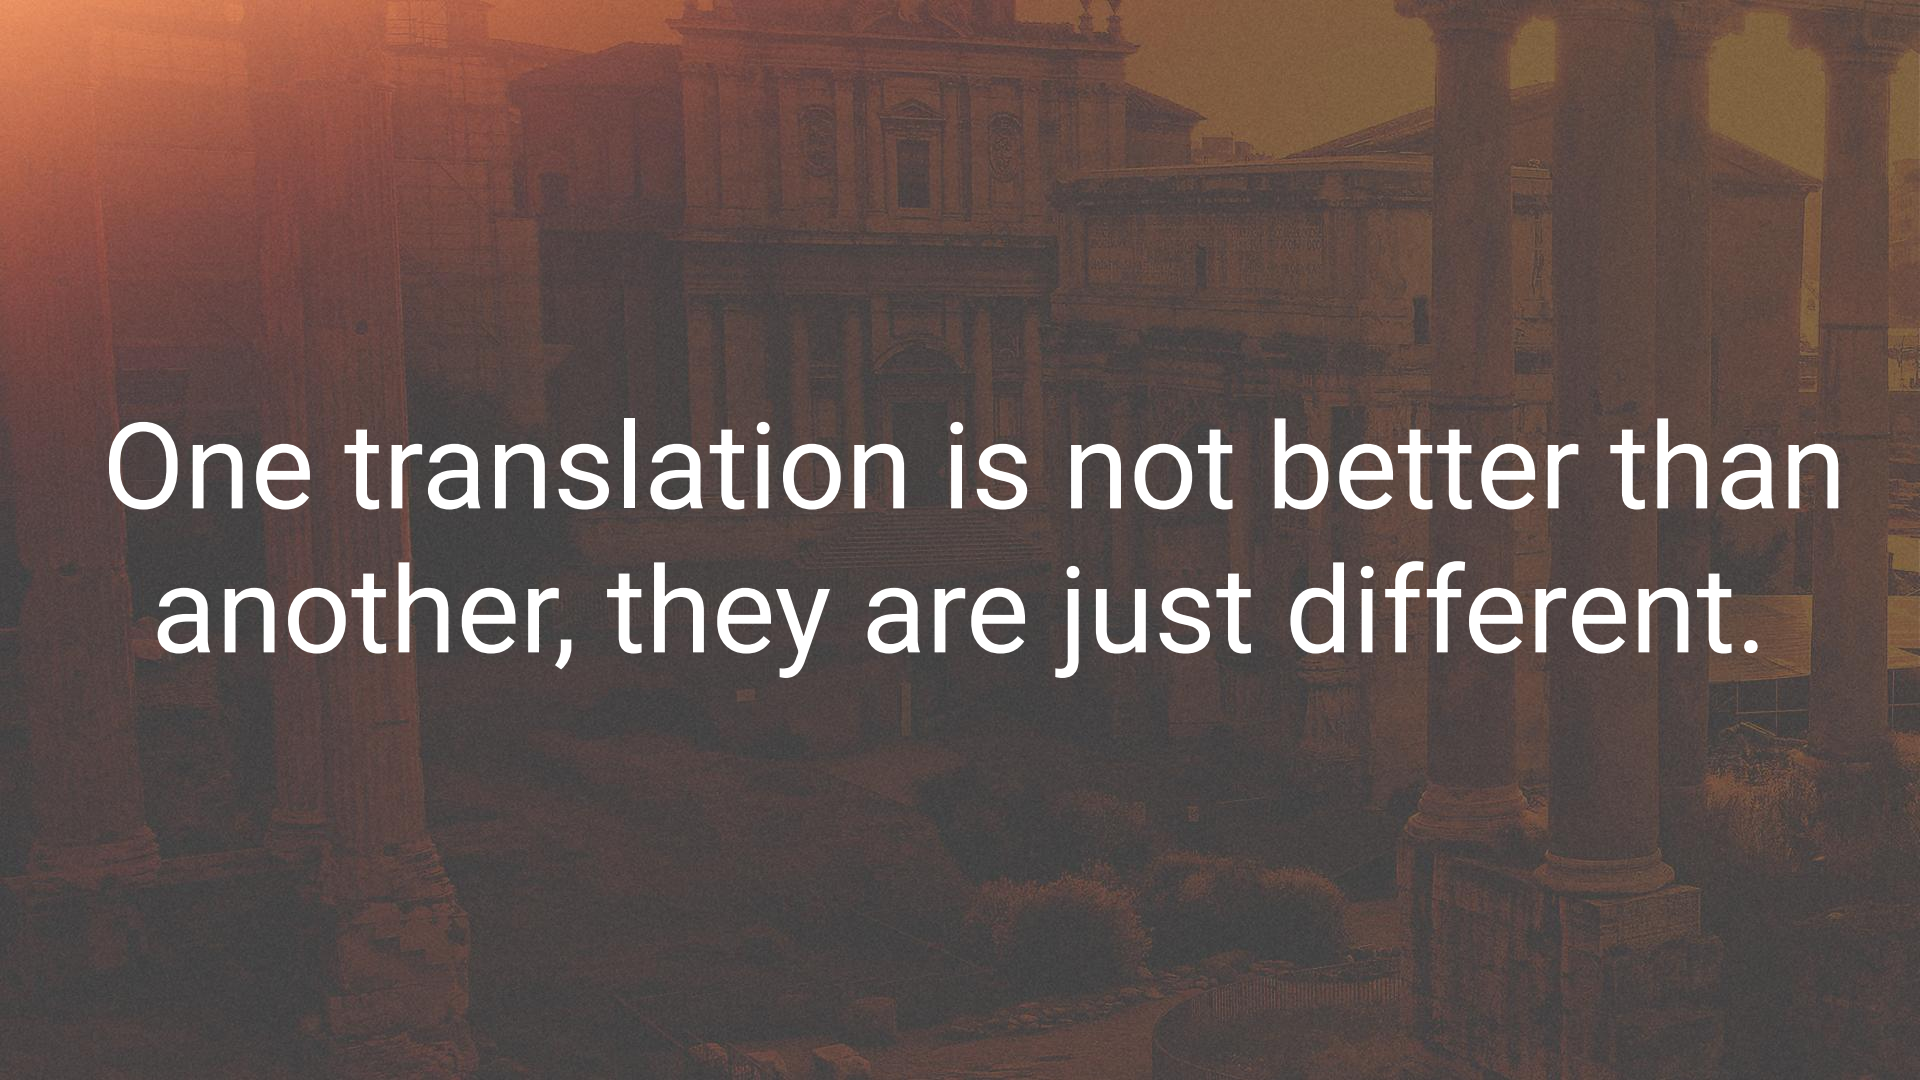

ROMANS 15:4-13

WORD-FOR-WORD

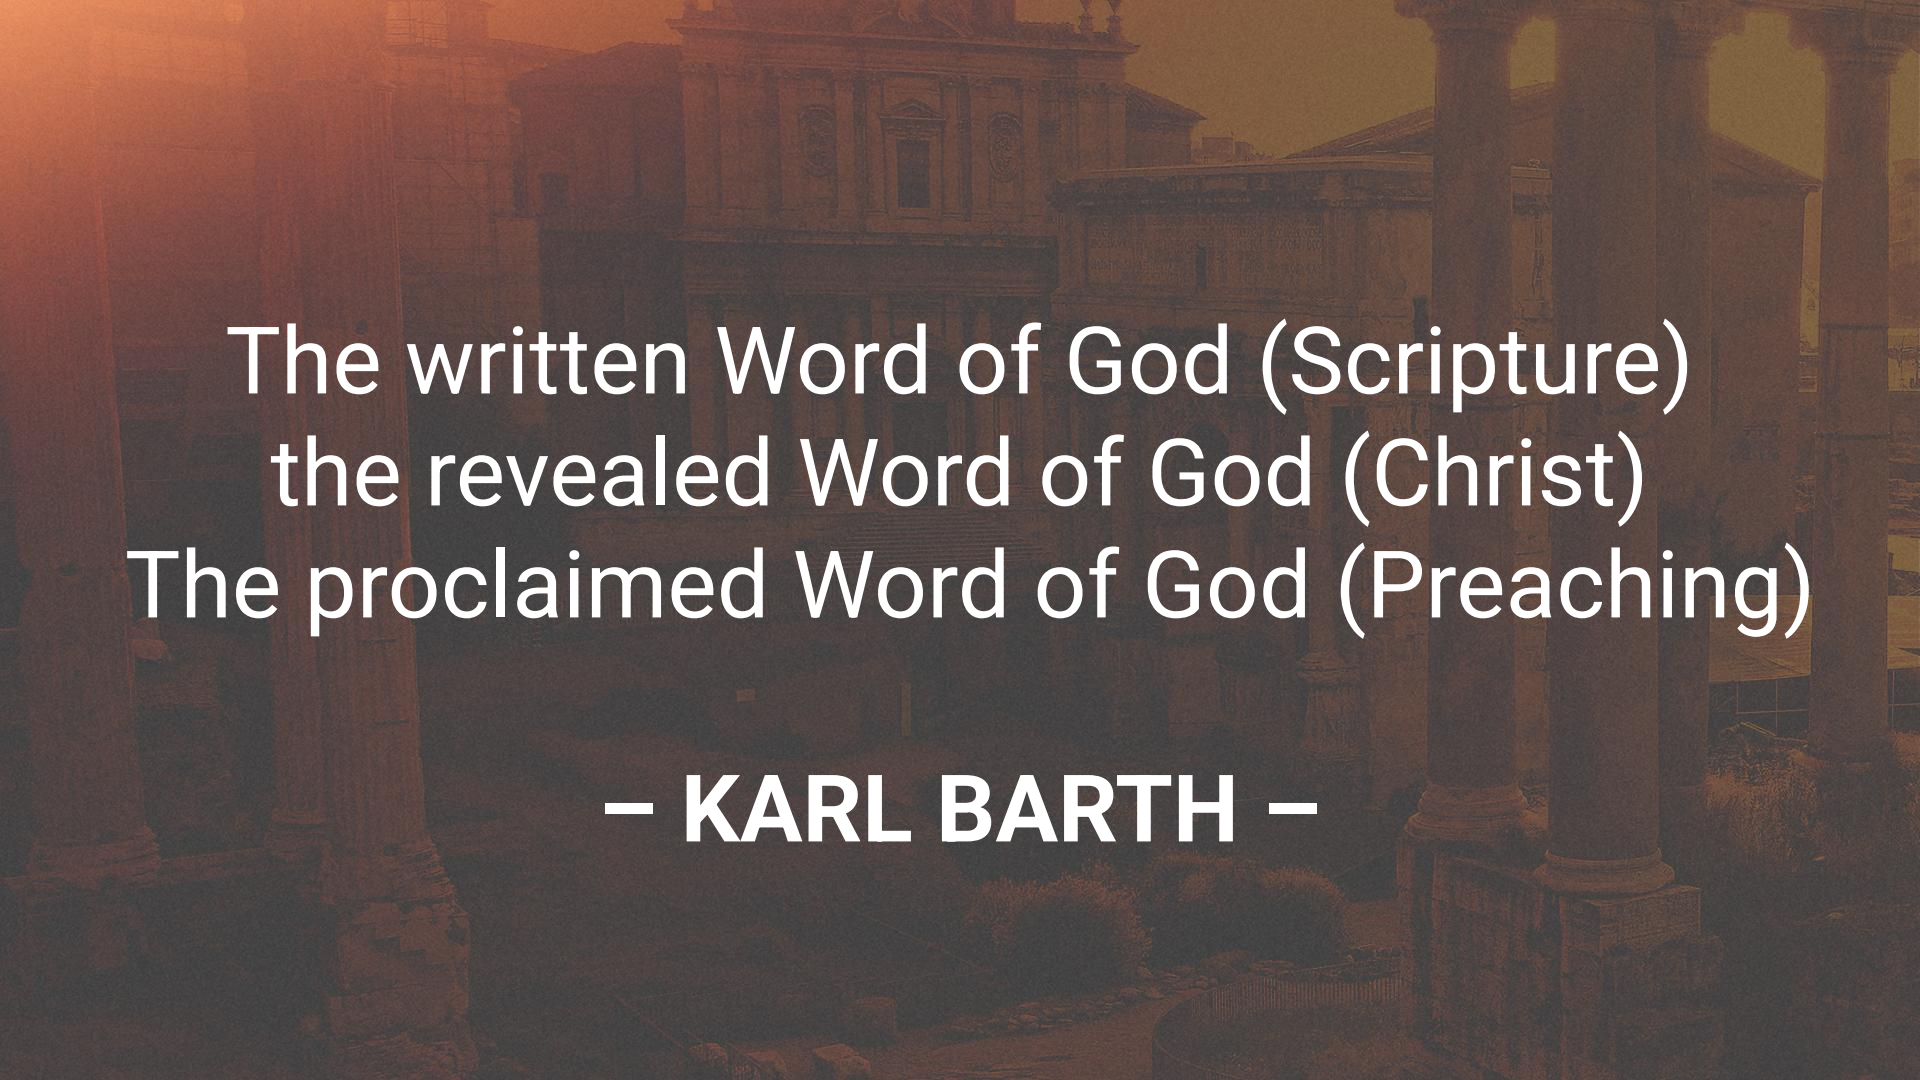

THOUGHT-FOR-THOUGHT

One translation is not better than another, they are just different.

It is the unity and entirety of the testimony of scripture, not the translations themselves, that are inspired, inerrant and infallible.

THE WRITTEN WORD OF GOD

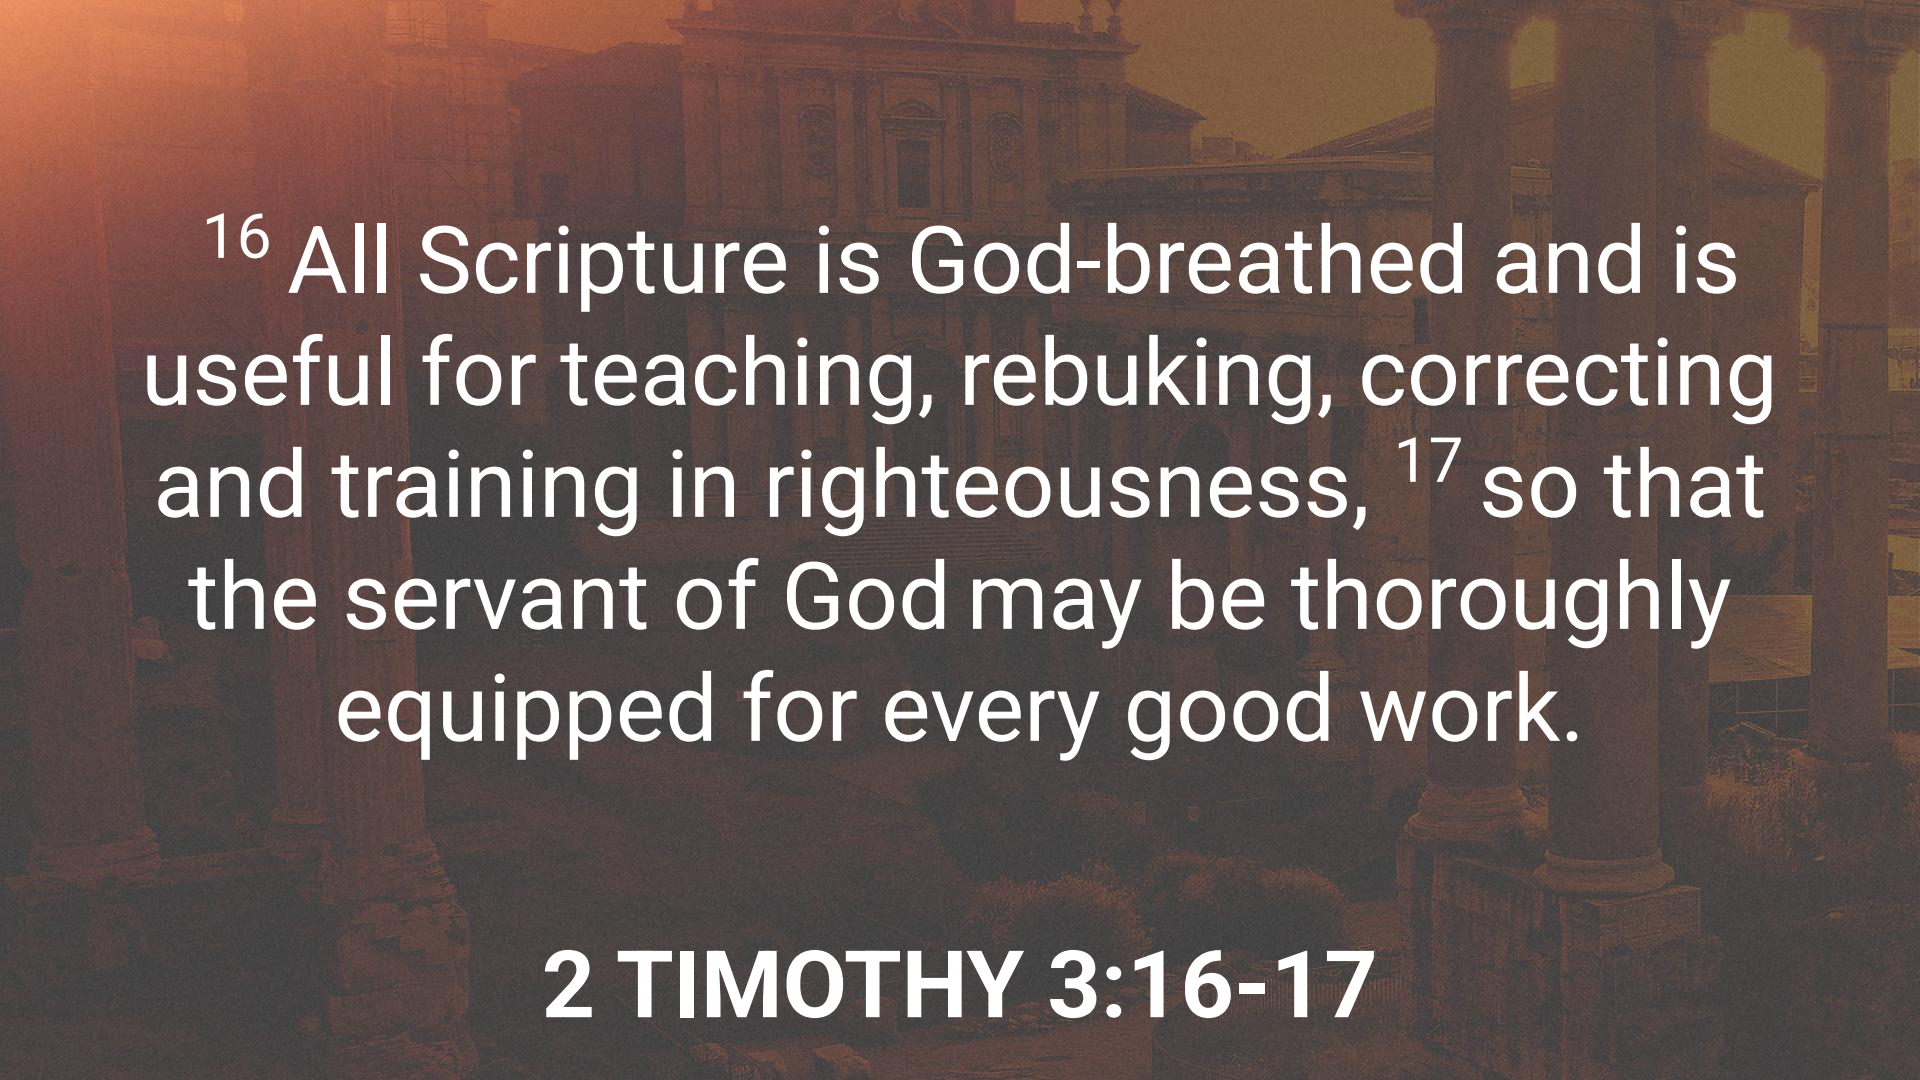

⁴ For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.

ROMANS 15:4

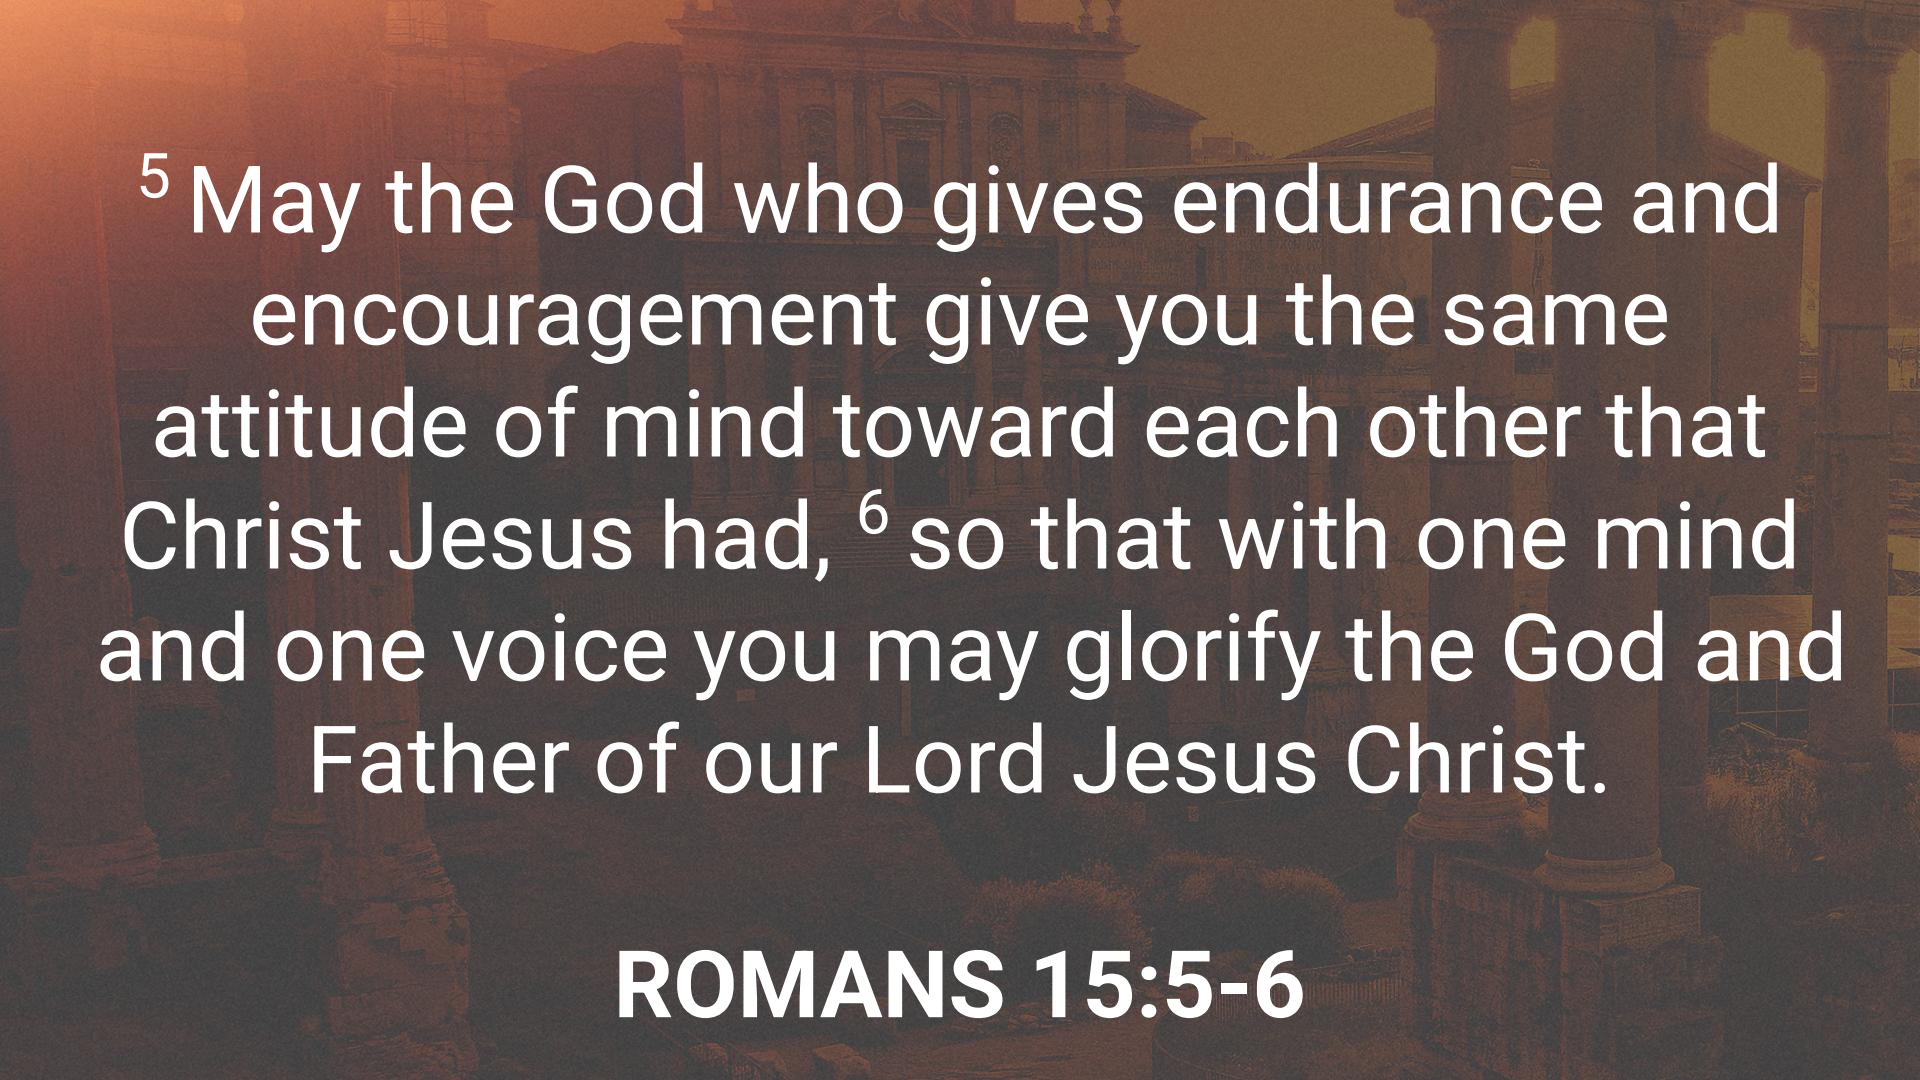

The background of the slide is a sepia-toned photograph of ancient ruins. In the foreground, there are several large, weathered stone columns. In the background, a grand temple with a pediment and multiple columns is visible. The overall atmosphere is historical and scholarly.

The Apostle Paul was suggesting that scripture is relevant despite whatever time gap exists between authorship and audience.

¹⁶ All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, ¹⁷ so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

2 TIMOTHY 3:16-17

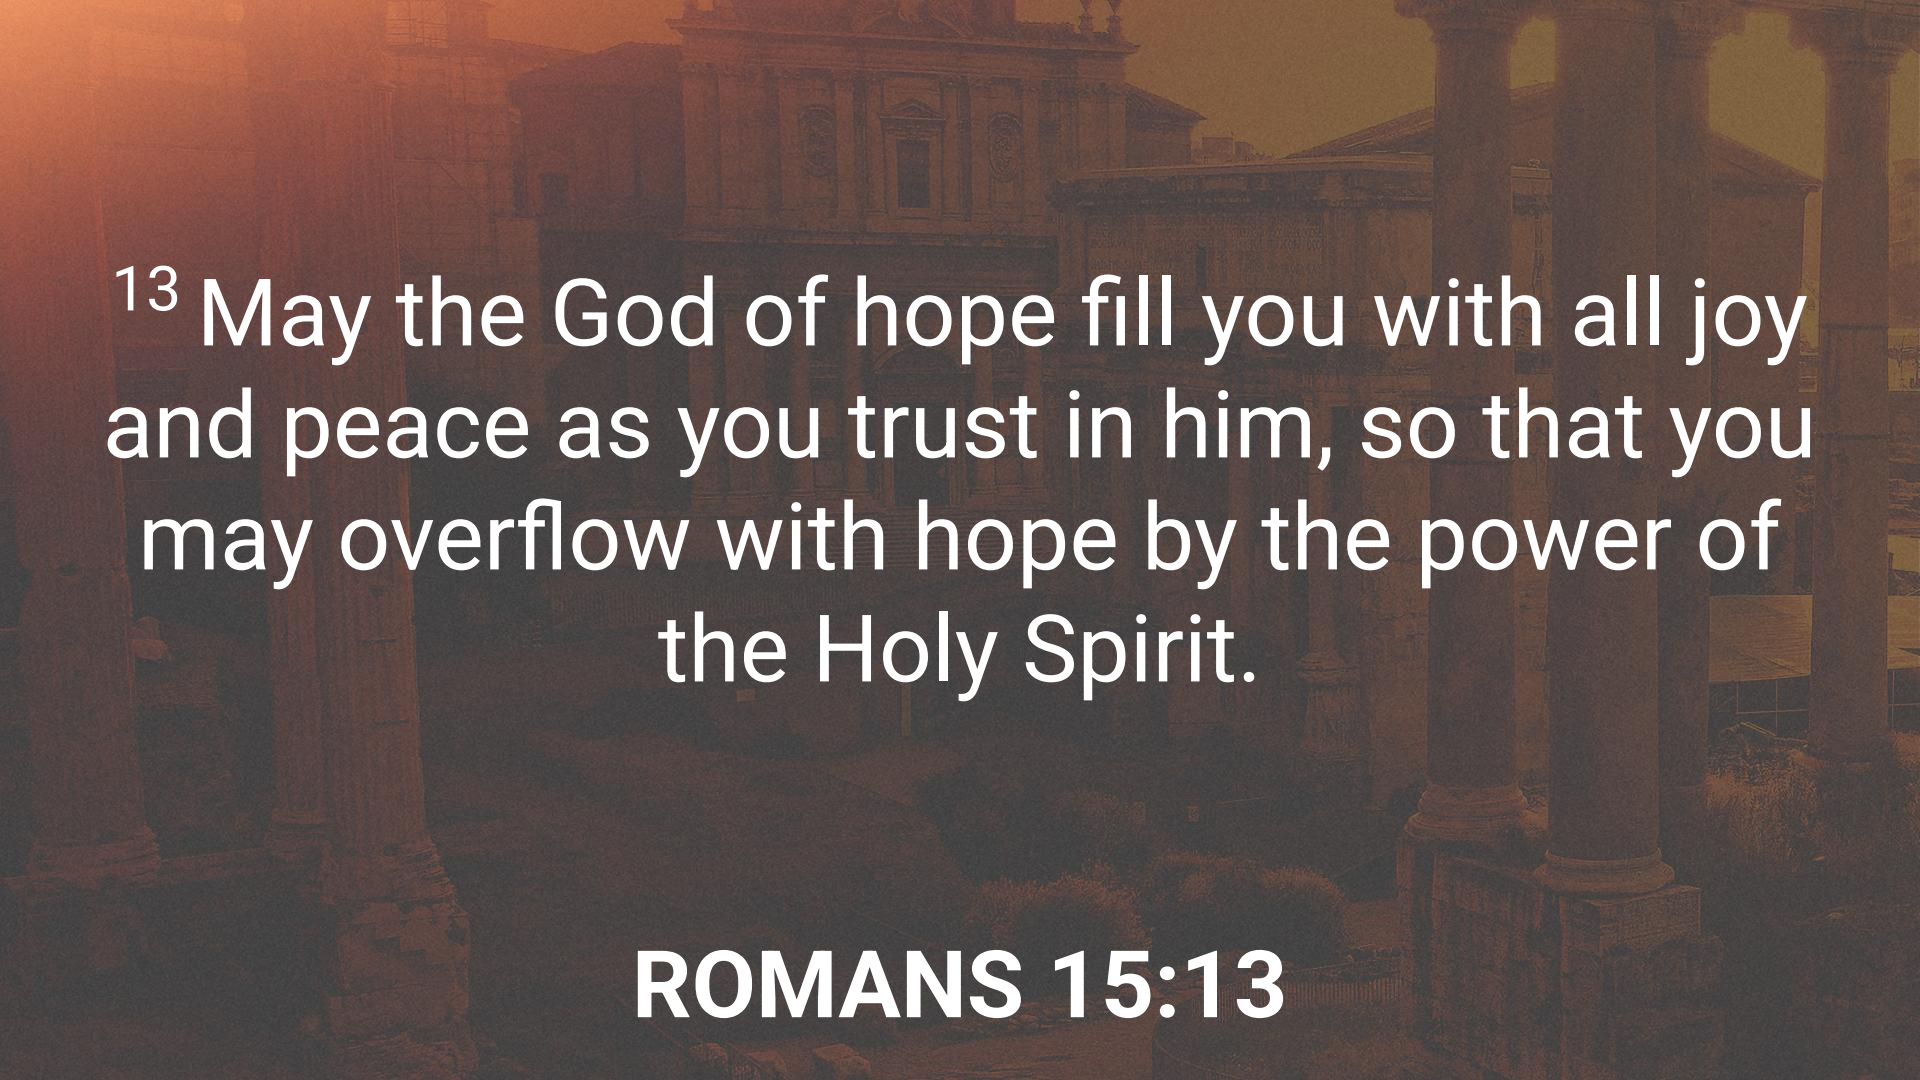

⁵ May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, ⁶ so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

ROMANS 15:5-6

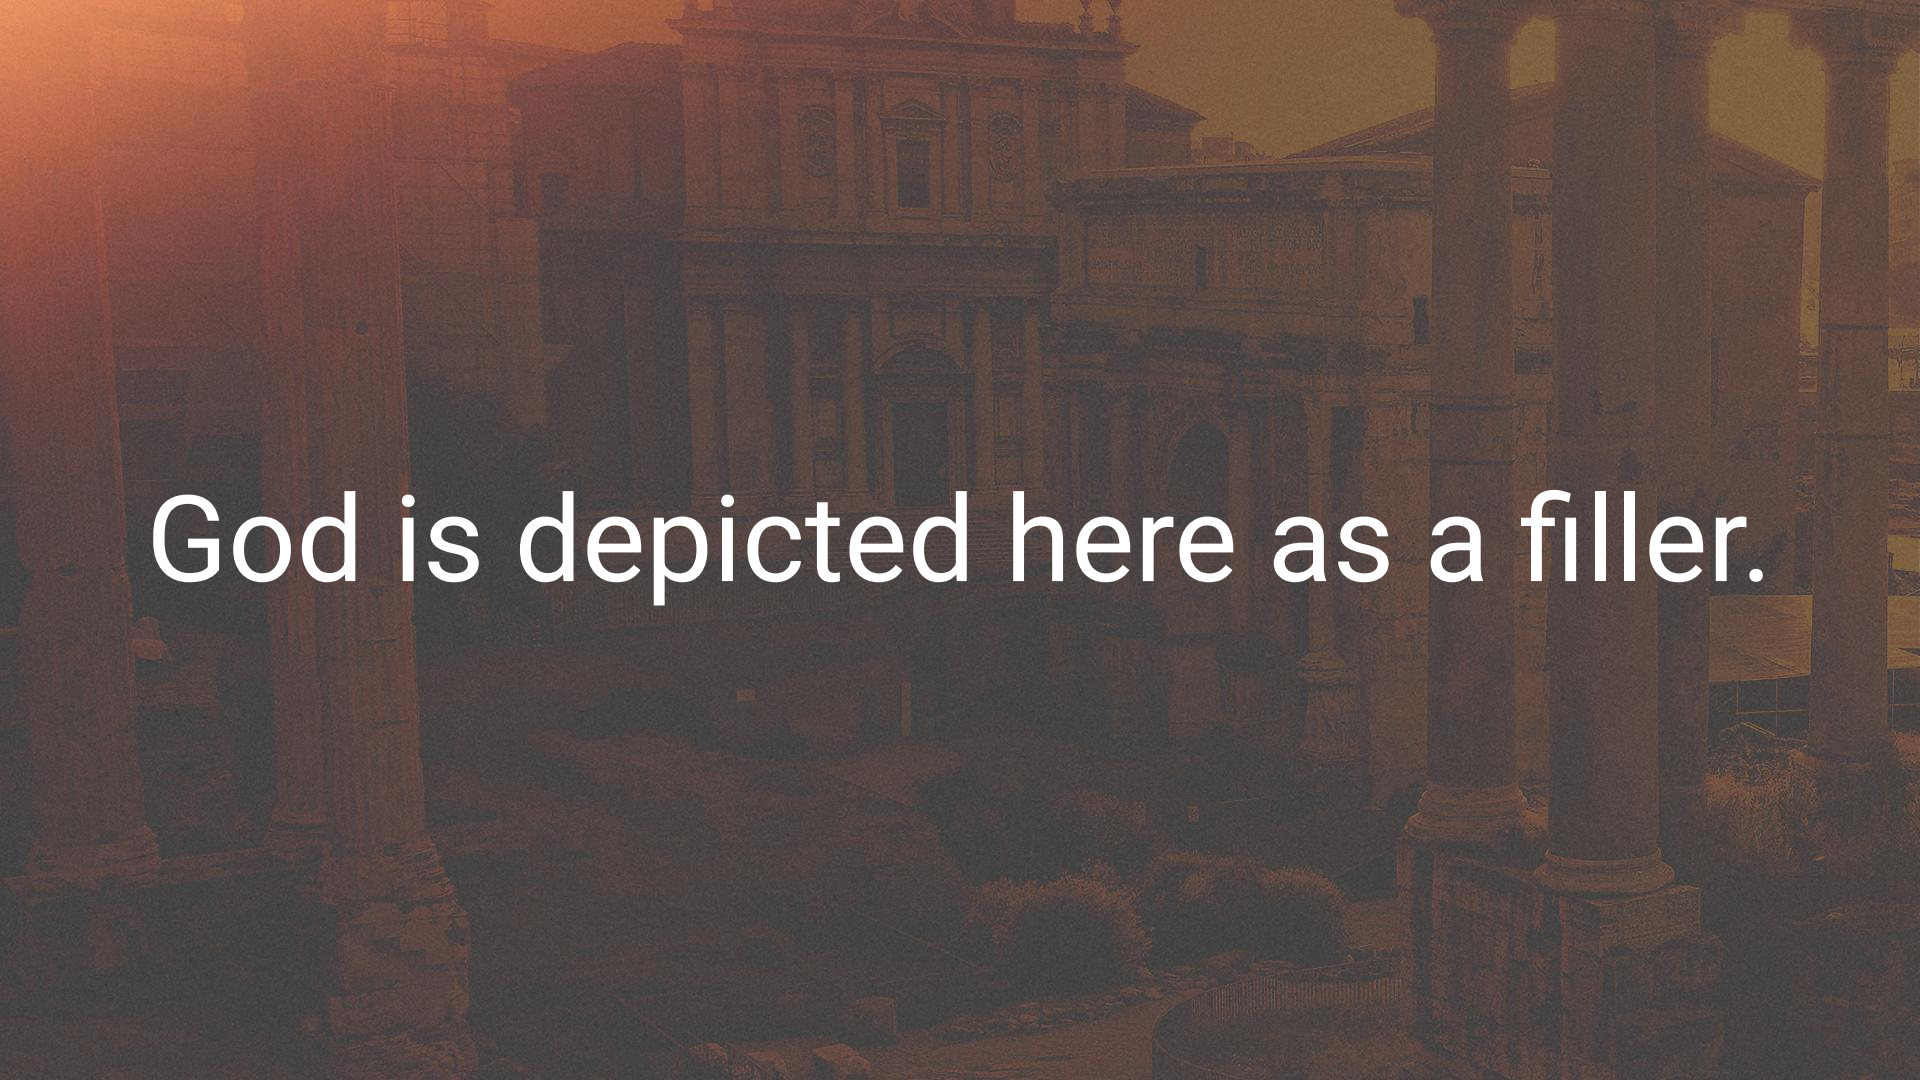

A photograph of ancient Roman ruins, including the Temple of Vesta and the Forum of Augustus, bathed in a warm, golden light. The scene is filled with large, weathered stone columns and classical architectural details. The text "God is depicted here as a giver." is overlaid in white, sans-serif font across the center of the image.

God is depicted here as a giver.

ROMANS 15:13

A photograph of ancient Roman ruins, including the Temple of Vesta and the Forum of Augustus, with a warm, orange-toned overlay. The image shows several large, weathered columns and a partially reconstructed temple structure in the background. The foreground is filled with rubble and low-lying vegetation. The overall atmosphere is historical and somewhat somber due to the monochromatic color scheme.

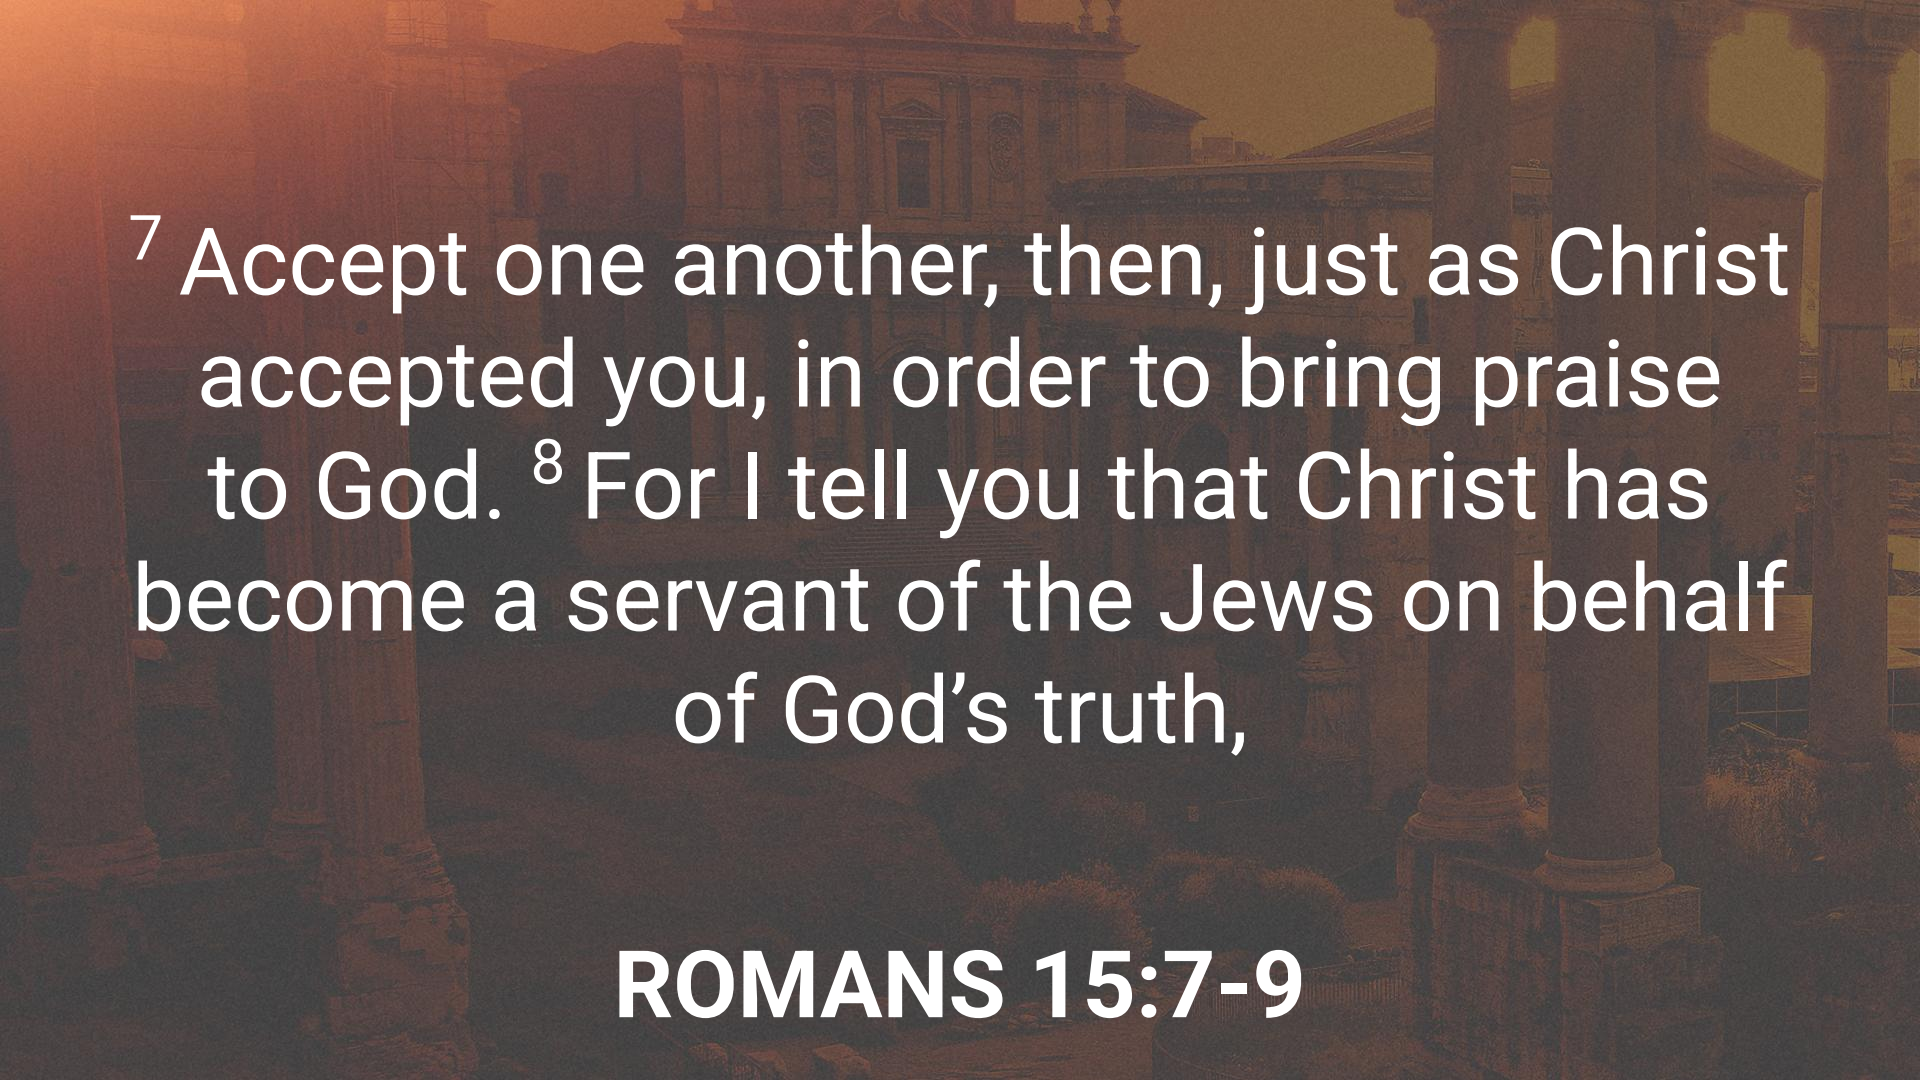

God is depicted here as a filler.

What prayer can you pray for someone else using the words,
“May the God...”?

THE REVEALED WORD OF GOD

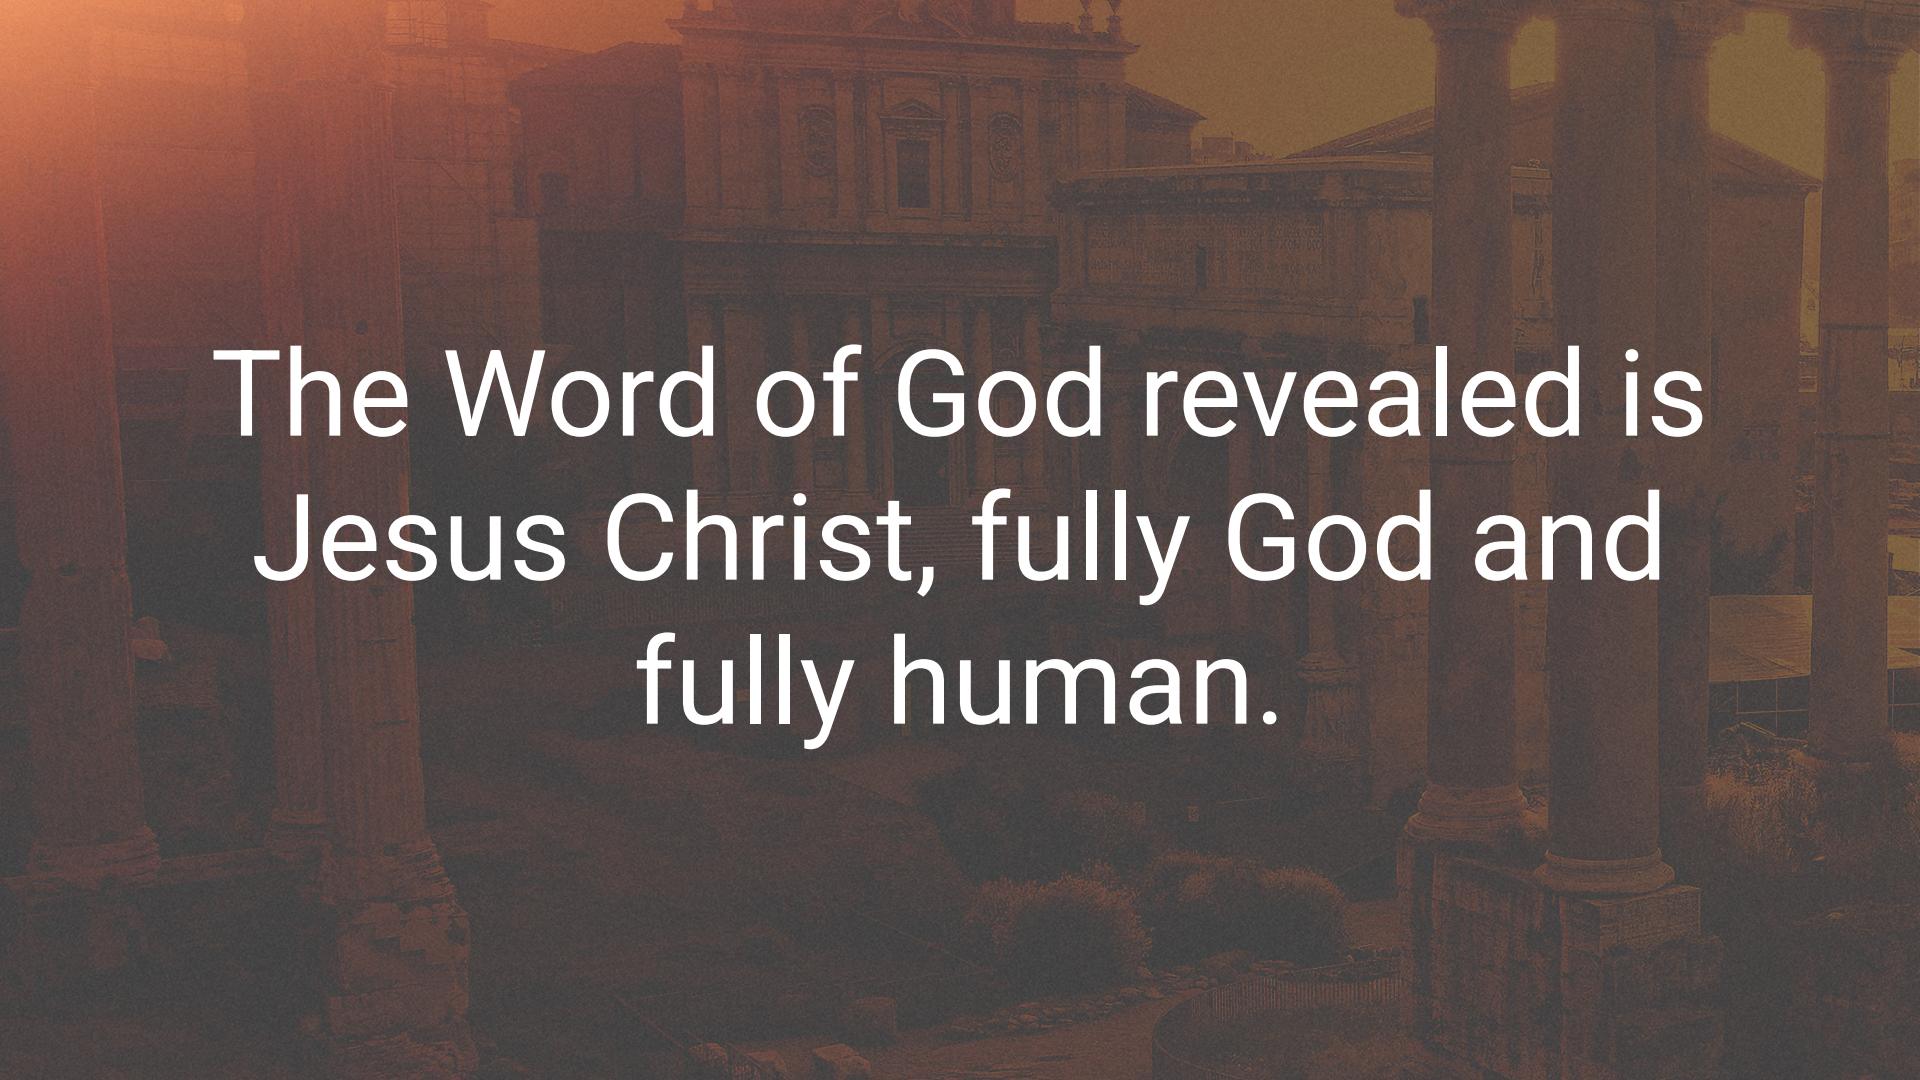

⁷ Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. ⁸ For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews on behalf of God's truth,

ROMANS 15:7-9

so that the promises made to the patriarchs might be confirmed ⁹ and,
moreover, that the Gentiles might glorify
God for his mercy.

ROMANS 15:7-9

The Word of God revealed is Jesus Christ, fully God and fully human.

¹⁴ The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

JOHN 1:14

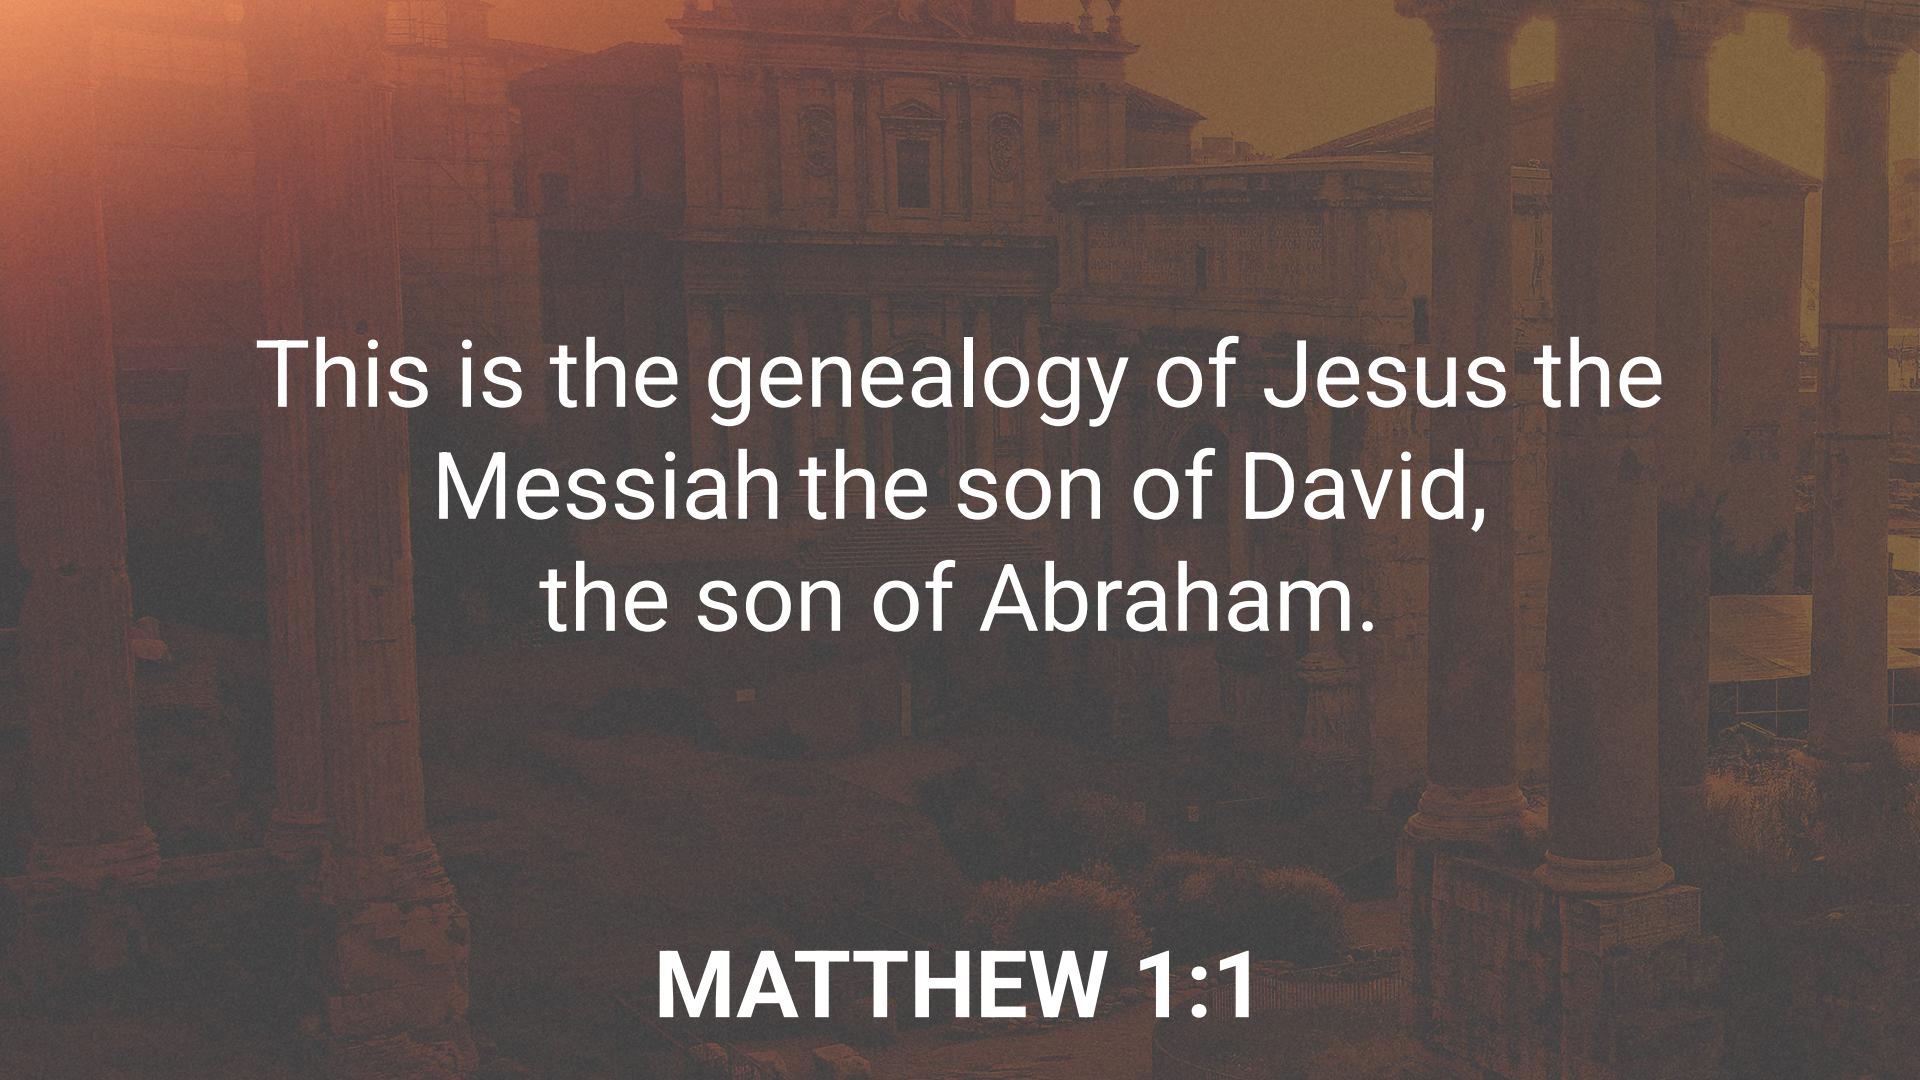

⁷ Rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.⁸ And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself.

PHILIPPIANS 2:7-8

Christ is the fulfillment of Old Testament promises in scripture.

This is the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah the son of David,
the son of Abraham.

MATTHEW 1:1

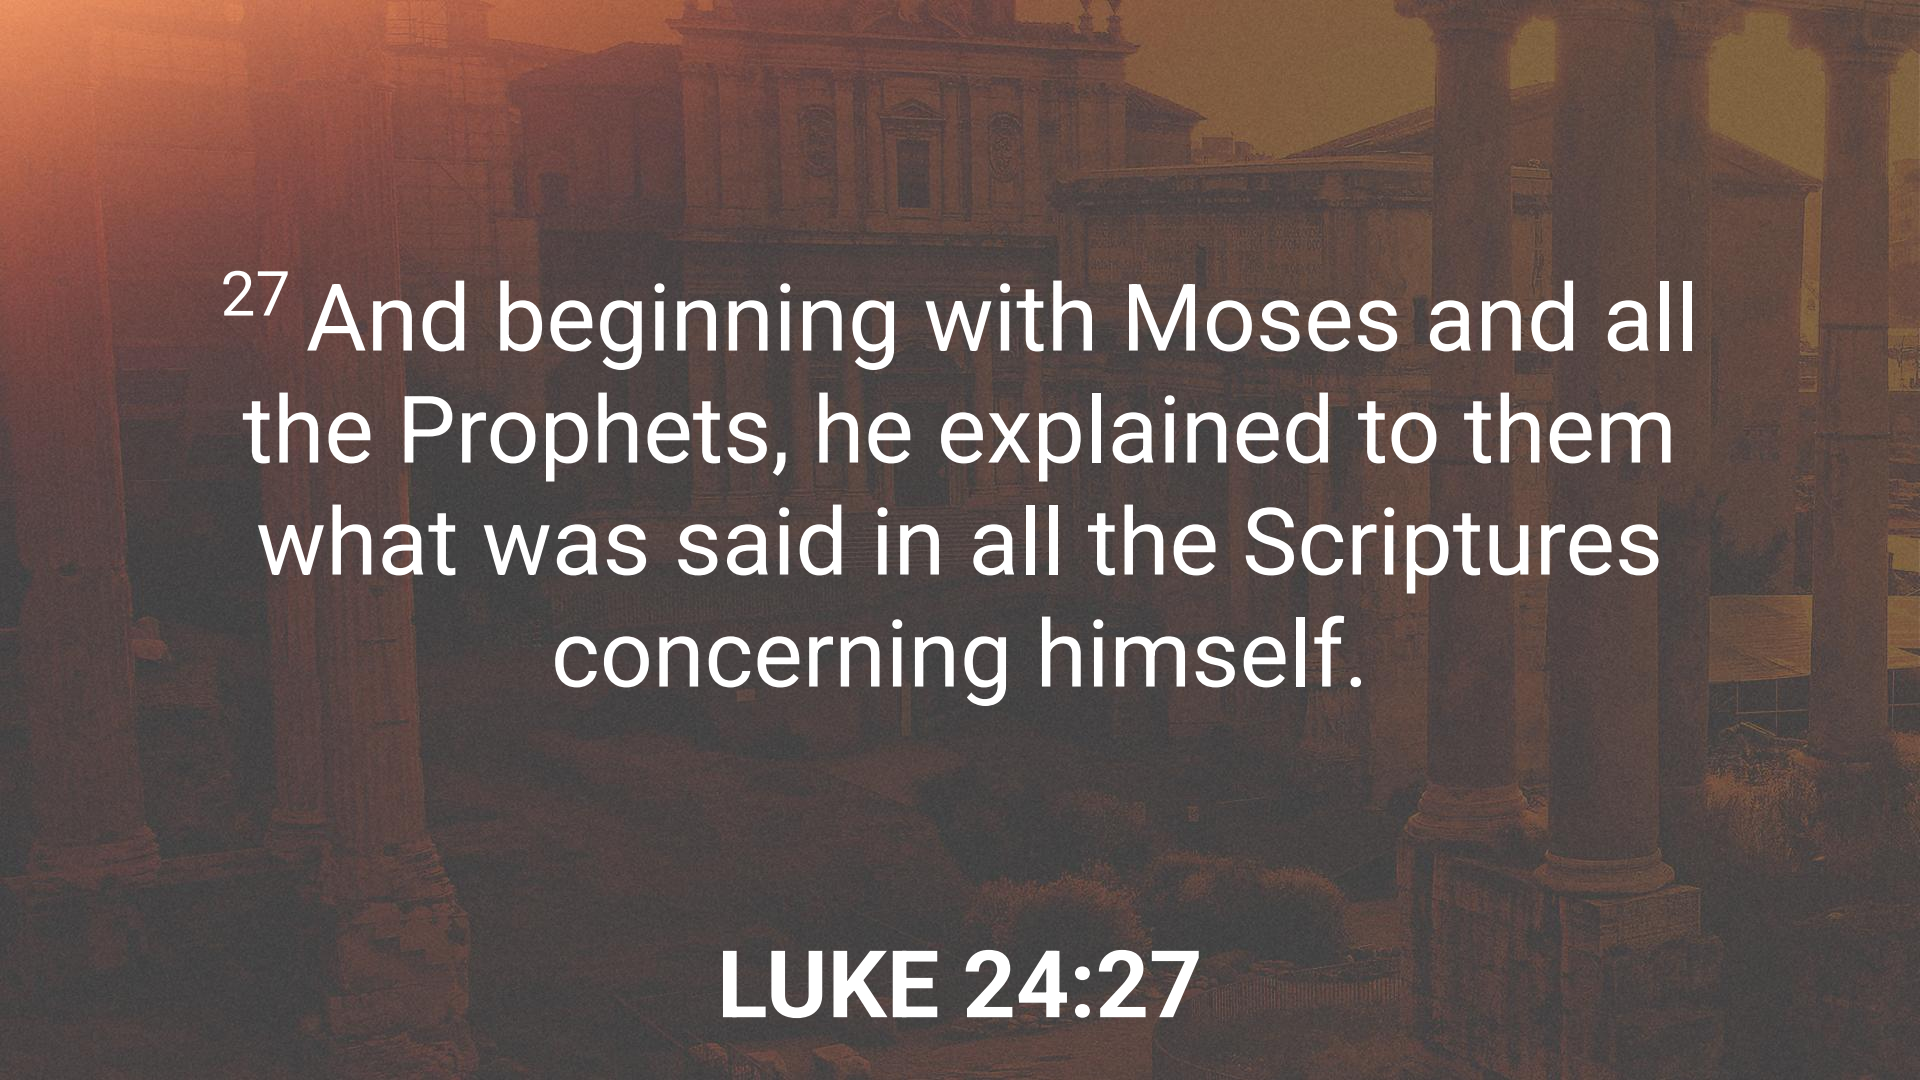

⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and told him,
“We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth,
the son of Joseph.”

JOHN 1:45

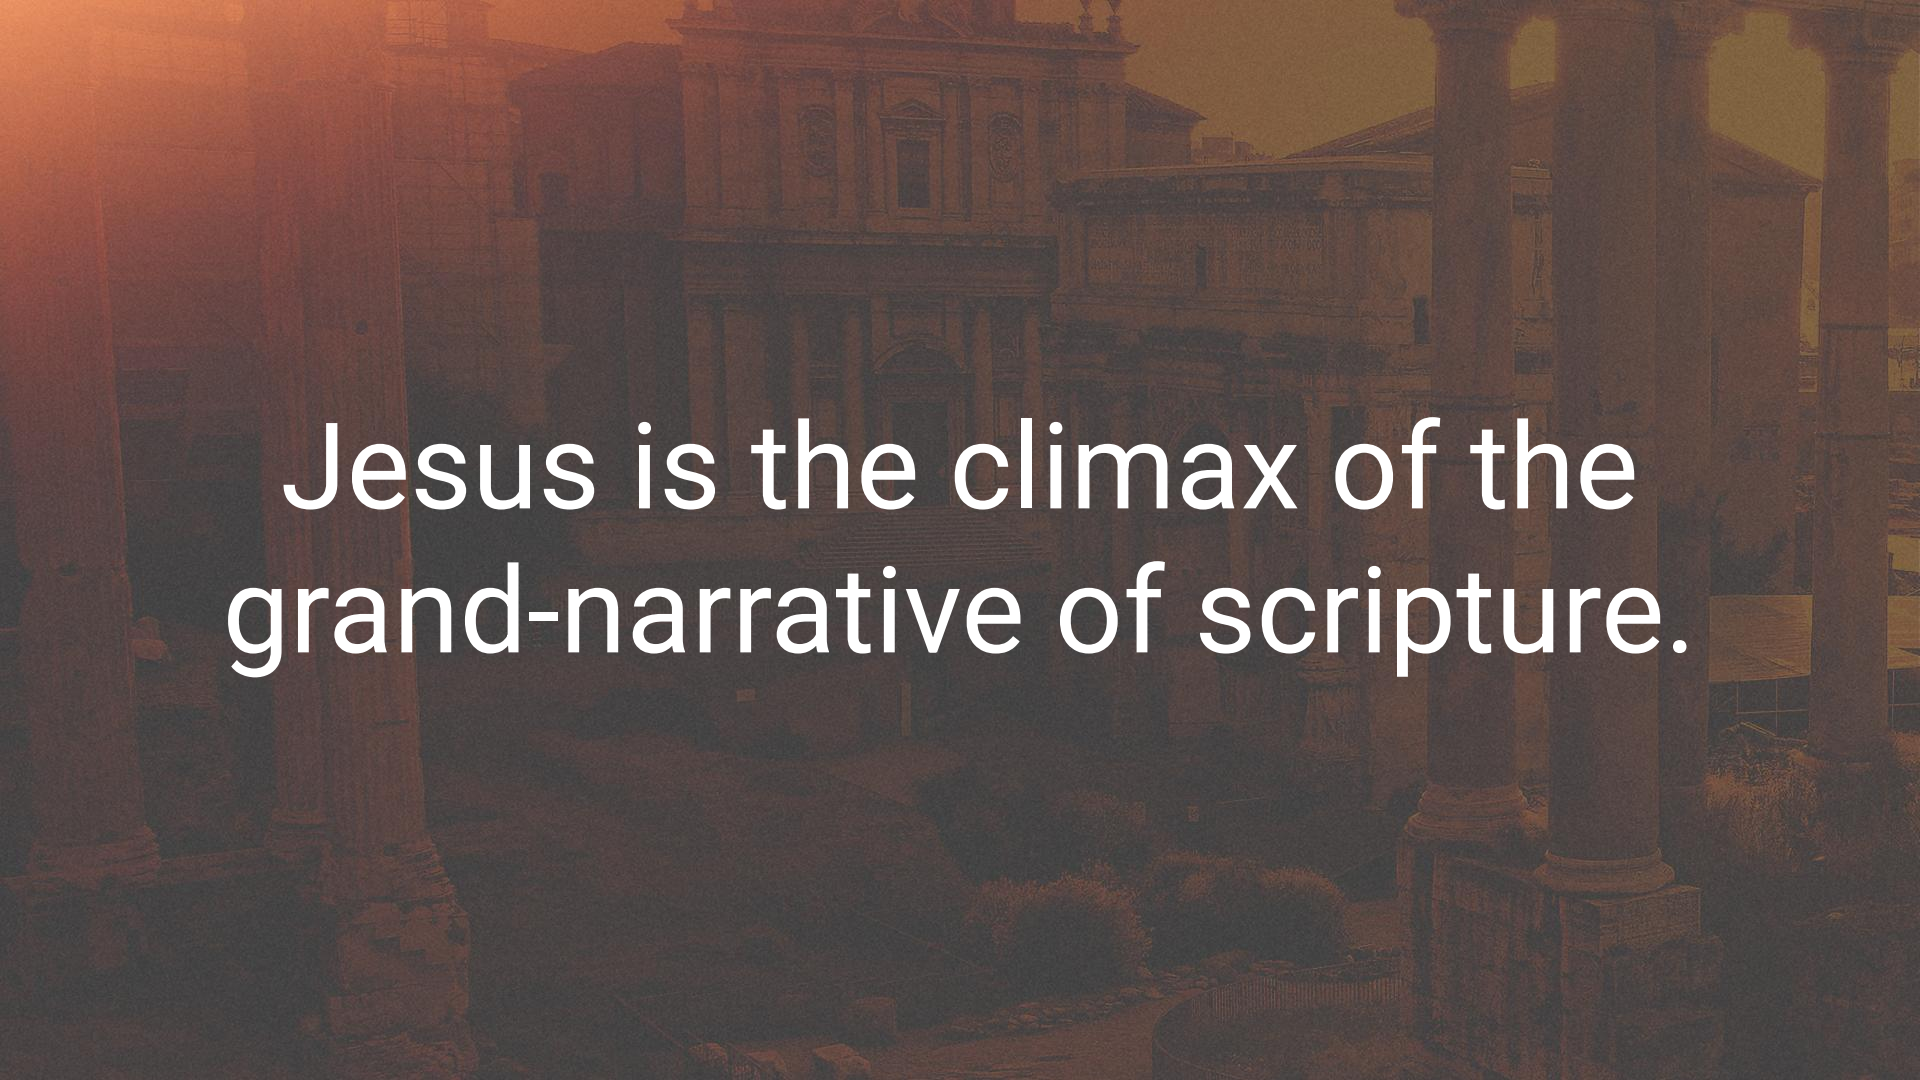

¹⁷ “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.”

MATTHEW 5:17

²⁷ And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

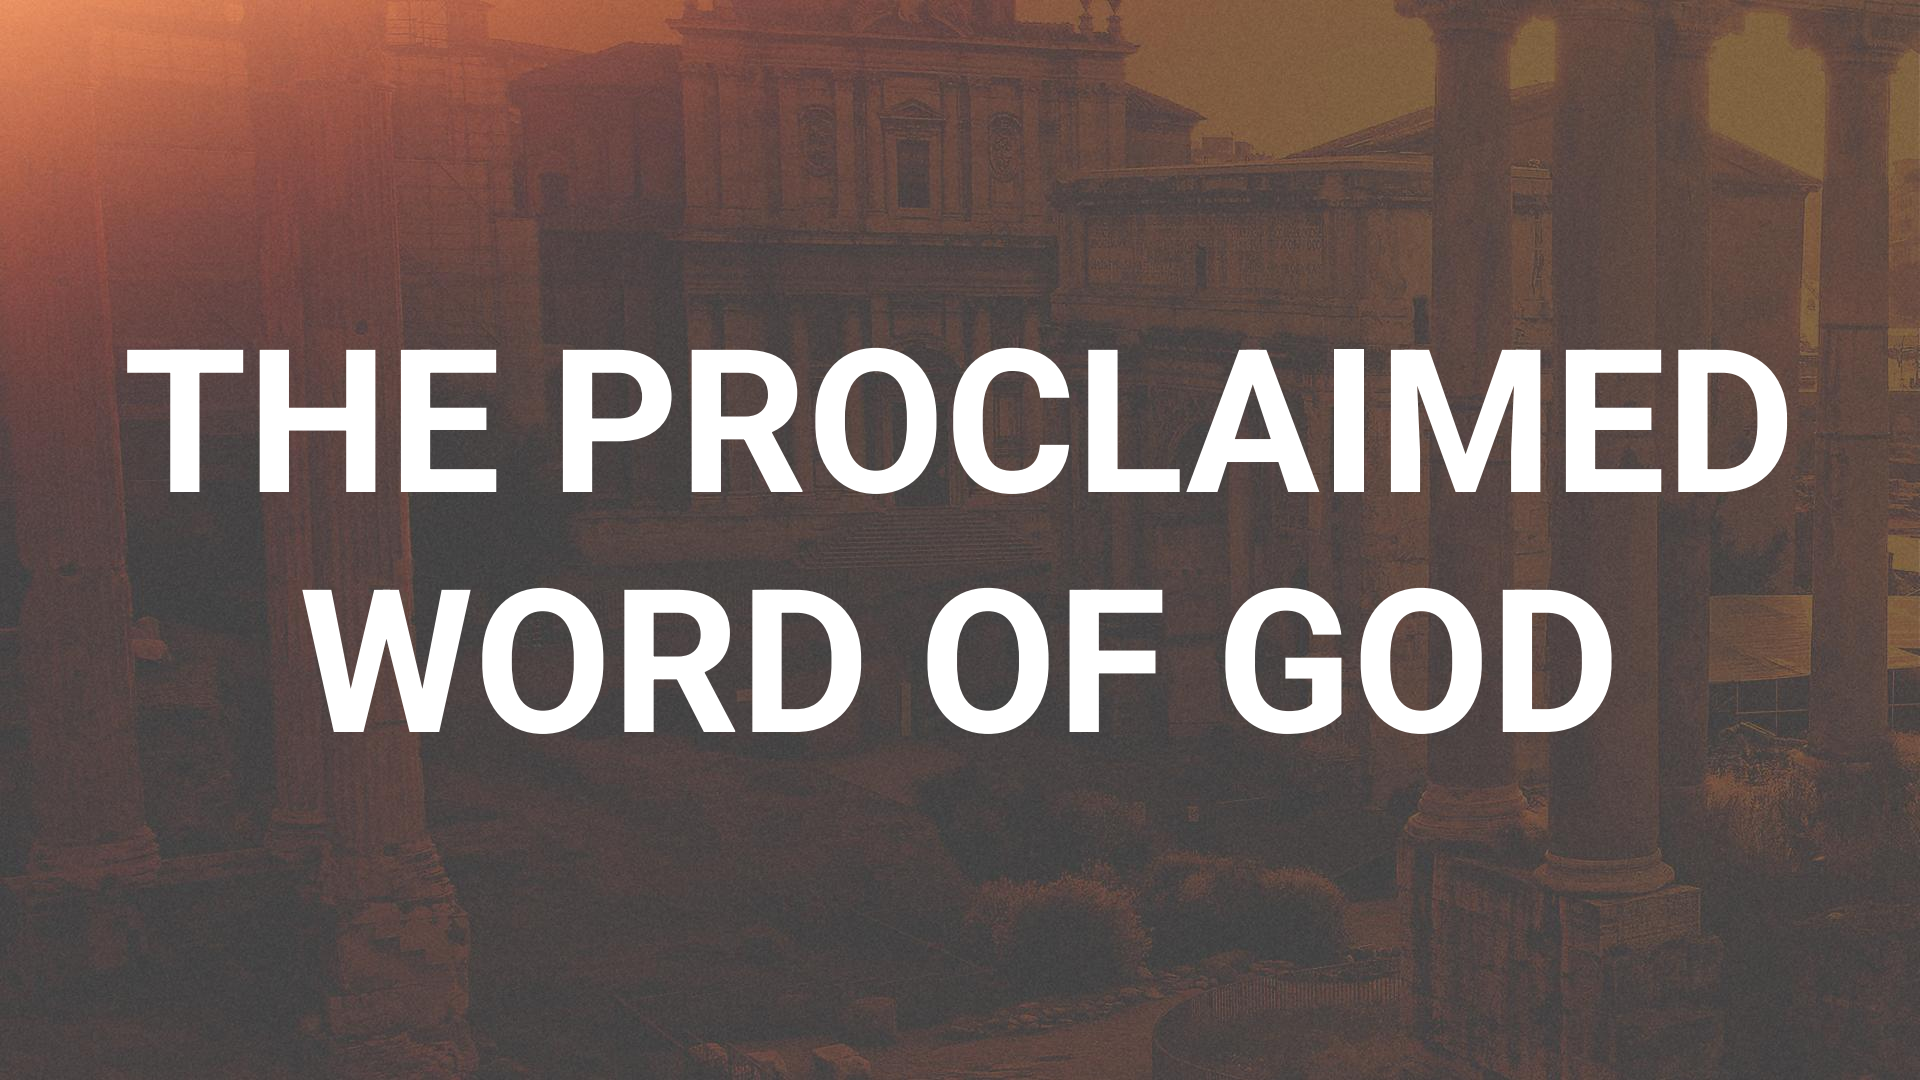

LUKE 24:27

Jesus is the climax of the grand-narrative of scripture.

Scripture shows us Christ so that we can be more like Christ.

THE PROCLAIMED WORD OF GOD

As it is written: “Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing the praises of your name.” ¹⁰ Again, it says, “Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people.”

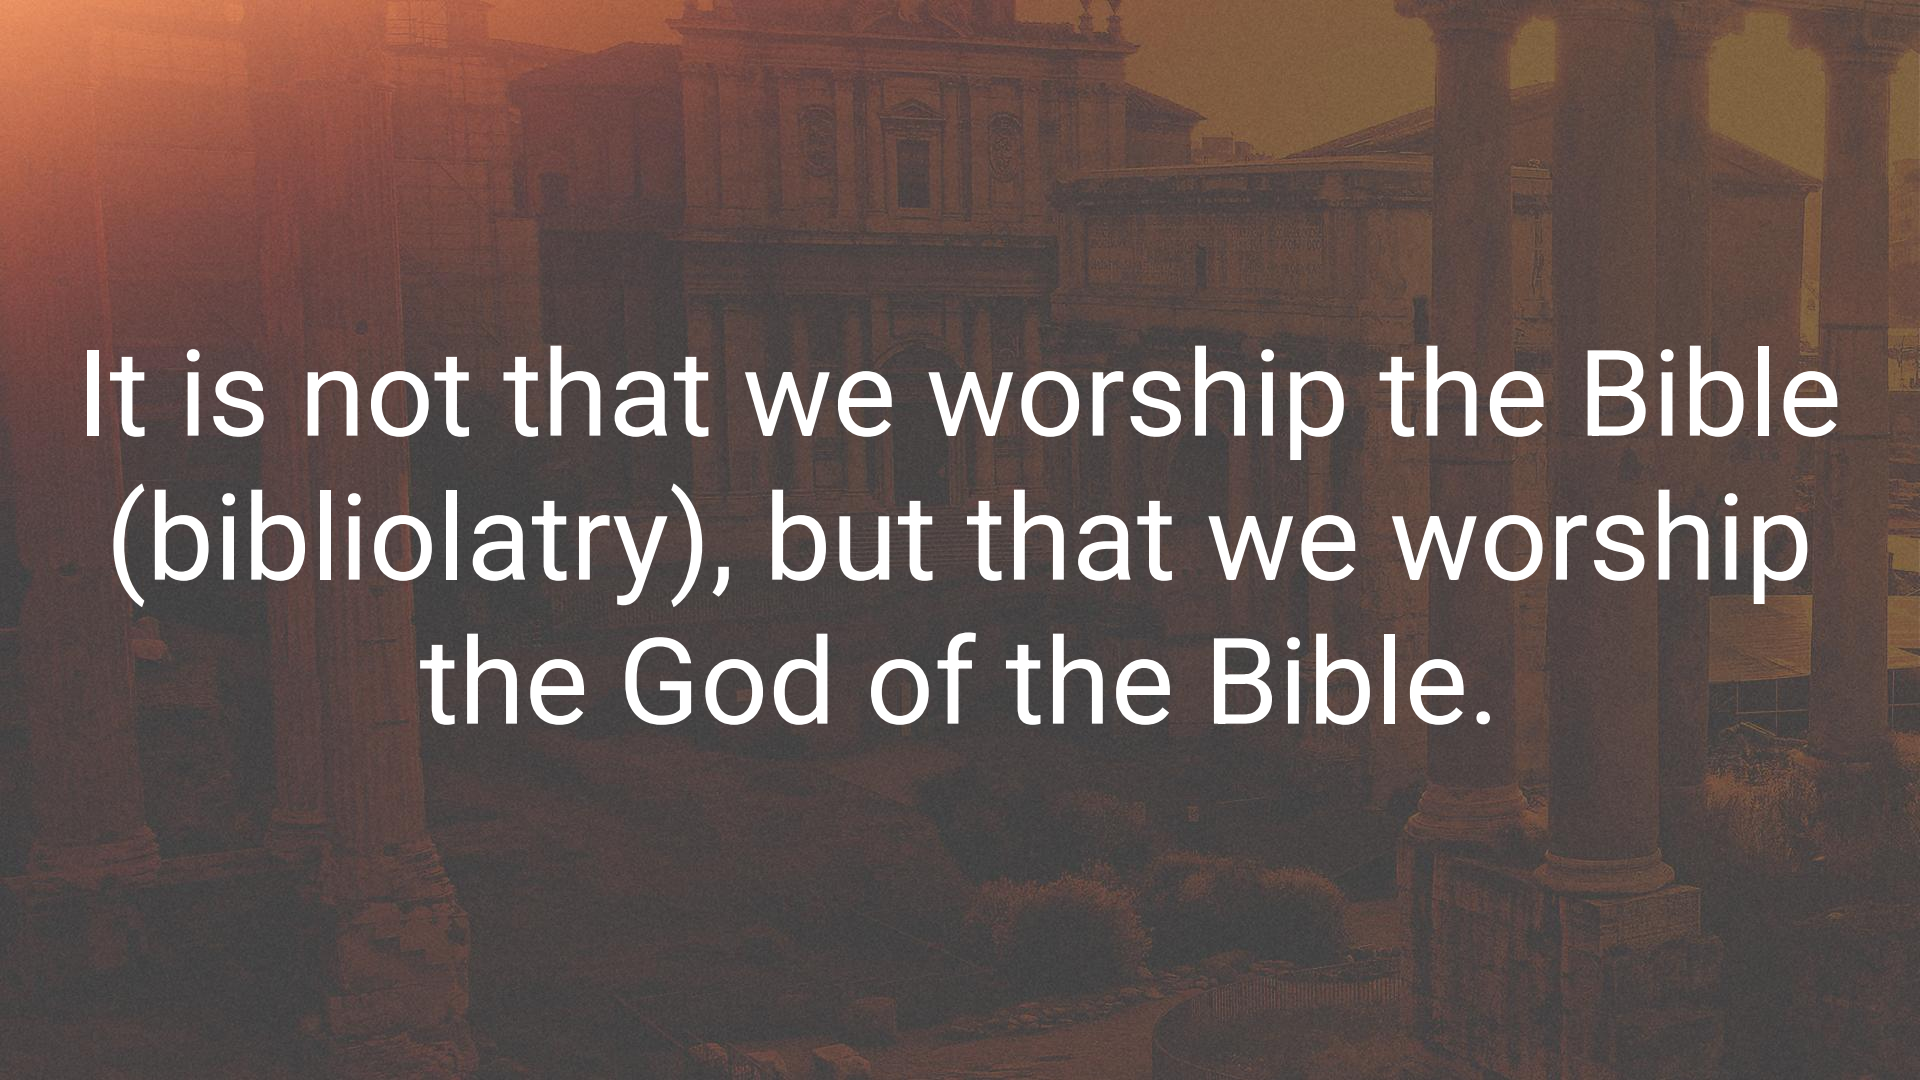

ROMANS 15:9-12

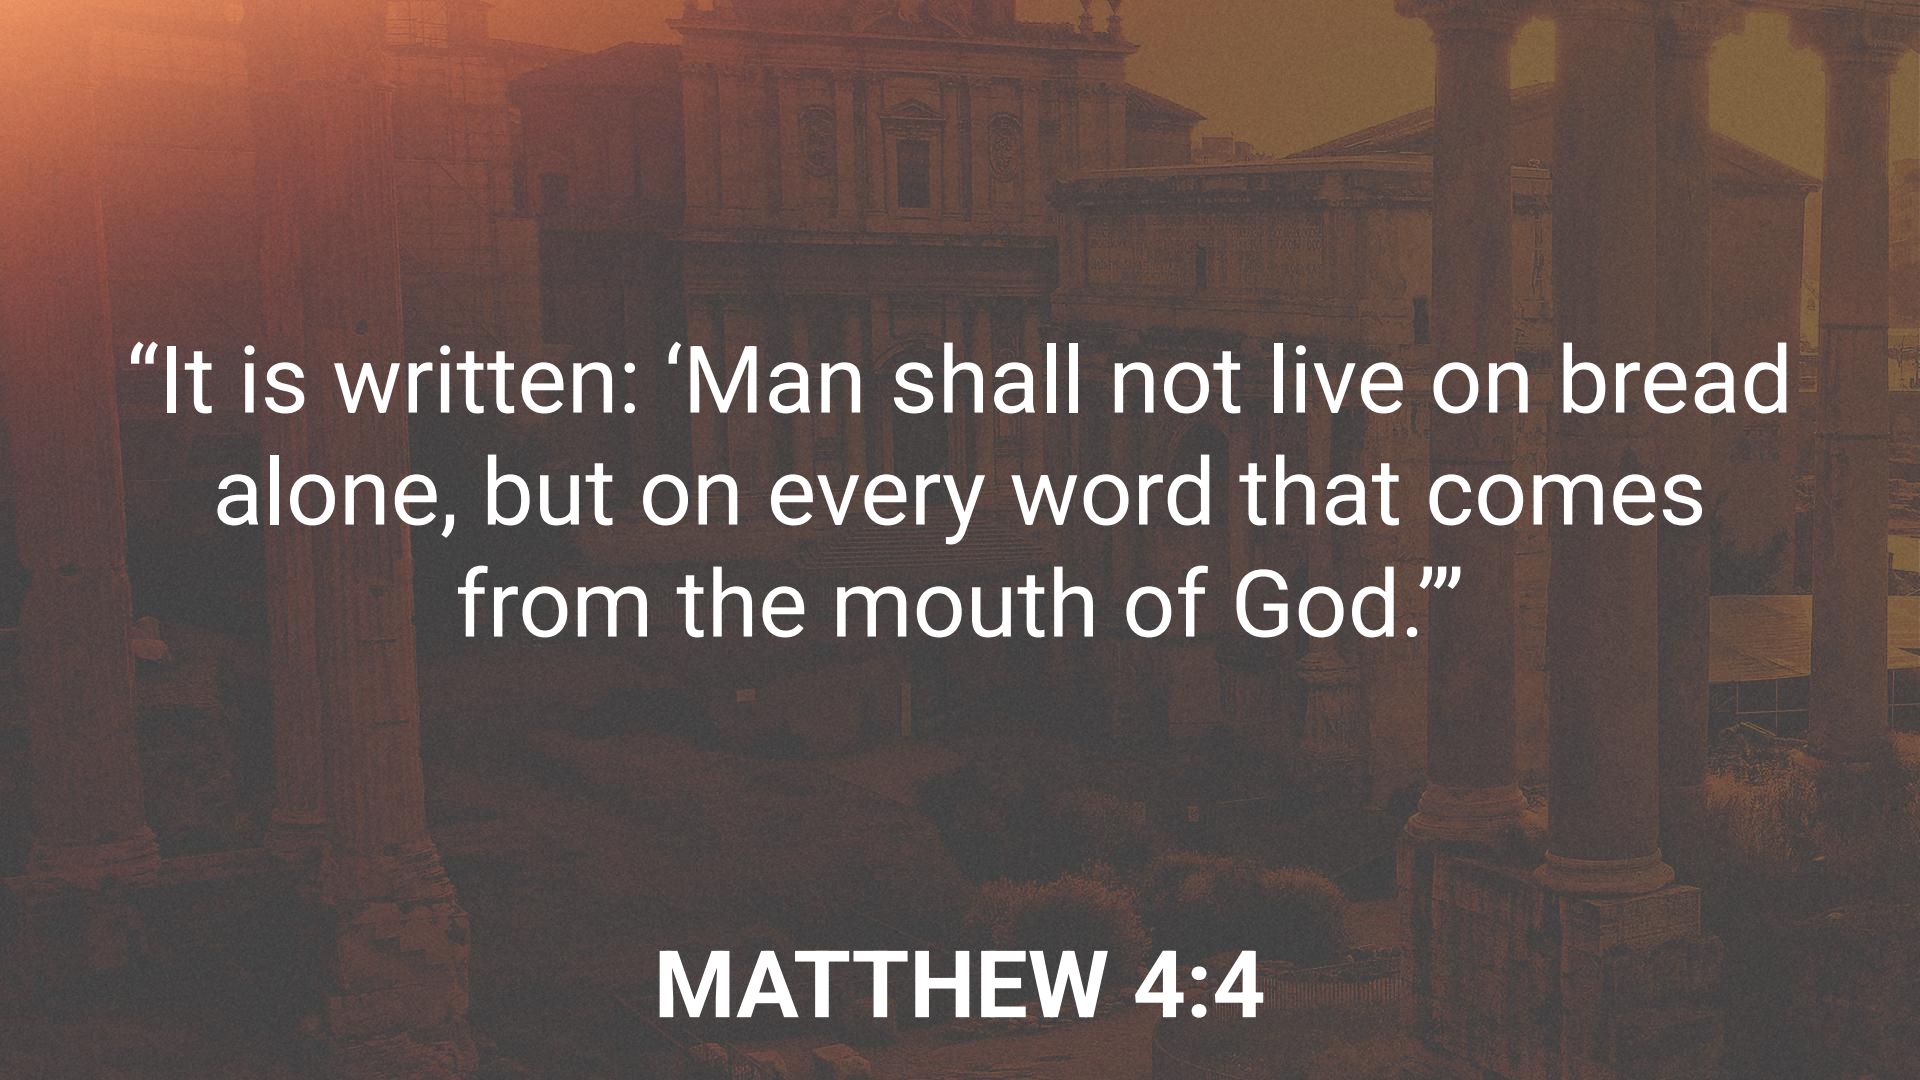

¹¹ And again, “Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; let all the peoples extol him.”

ROMANS 15:9-12

It is not that we worship the Bible (bibliolatry), but that we worship
the God of the Bible.

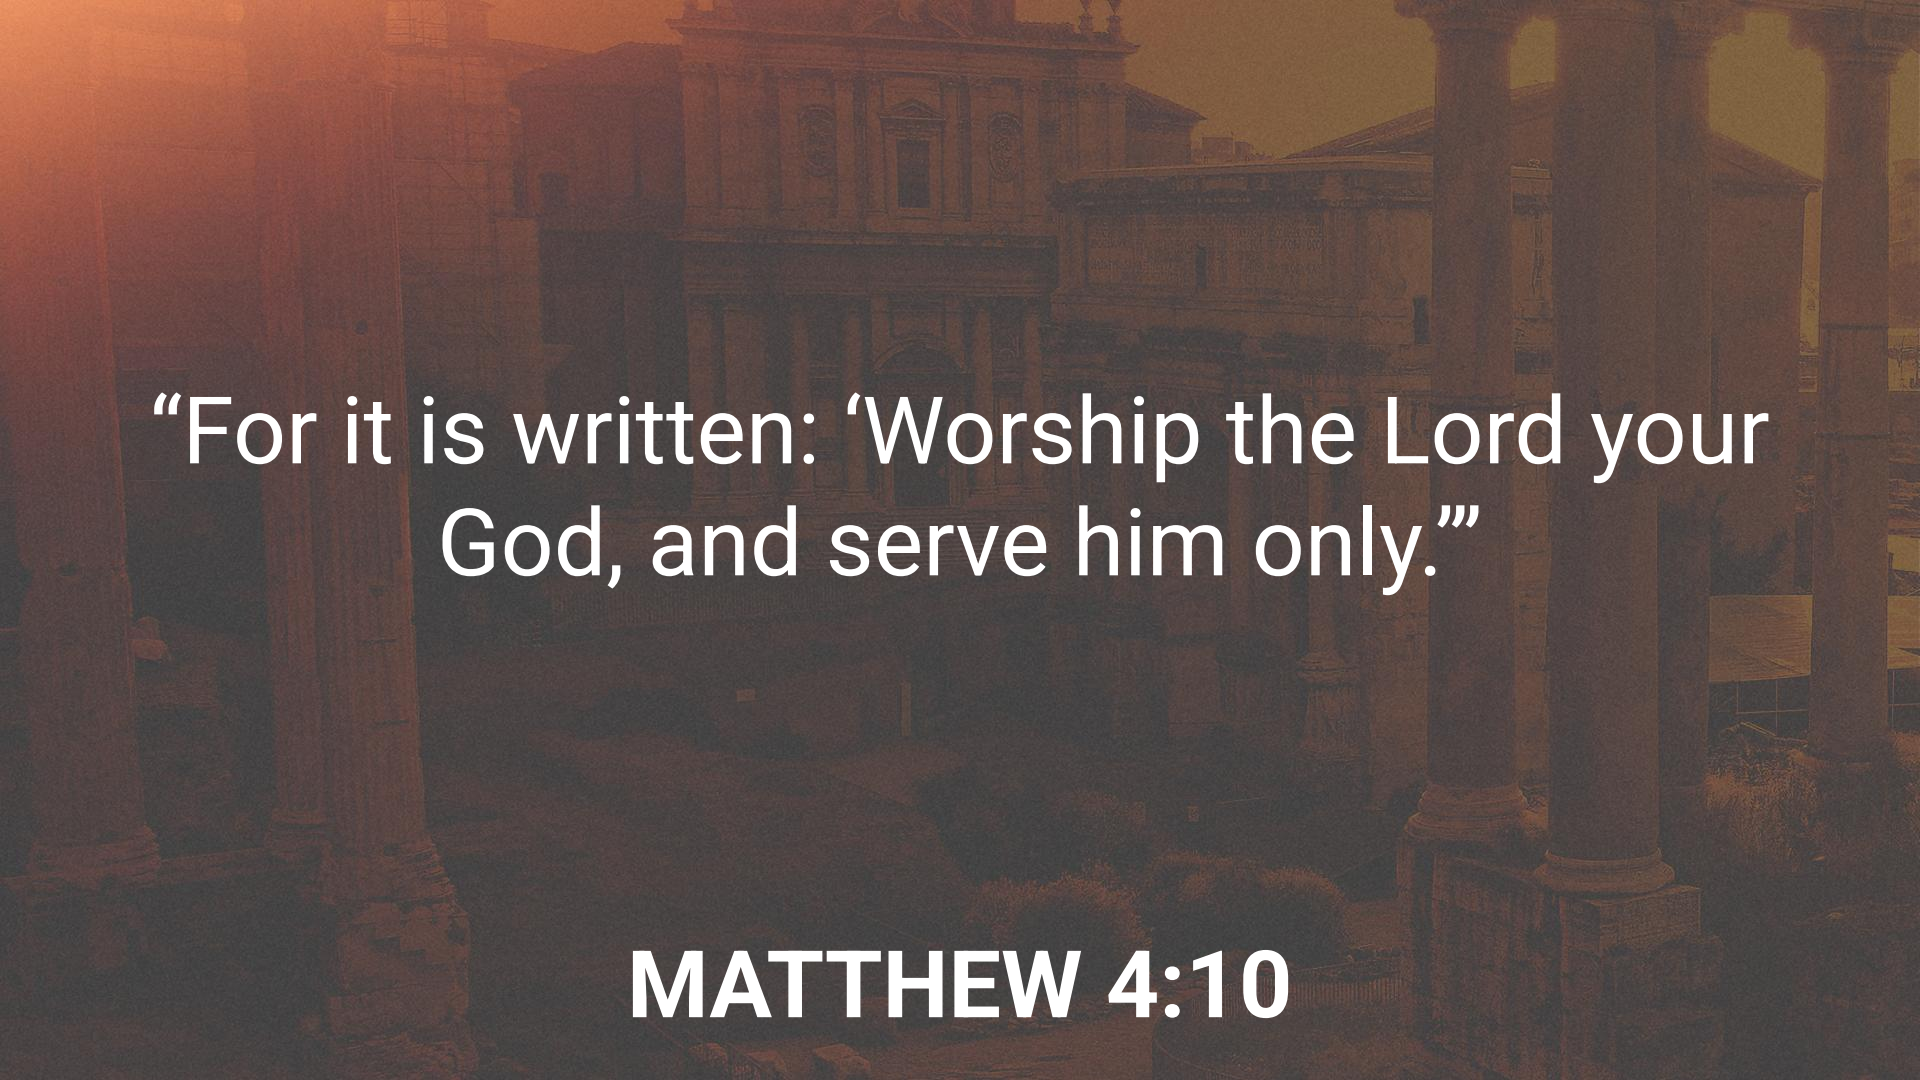

“It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

MATTHEW 4:4

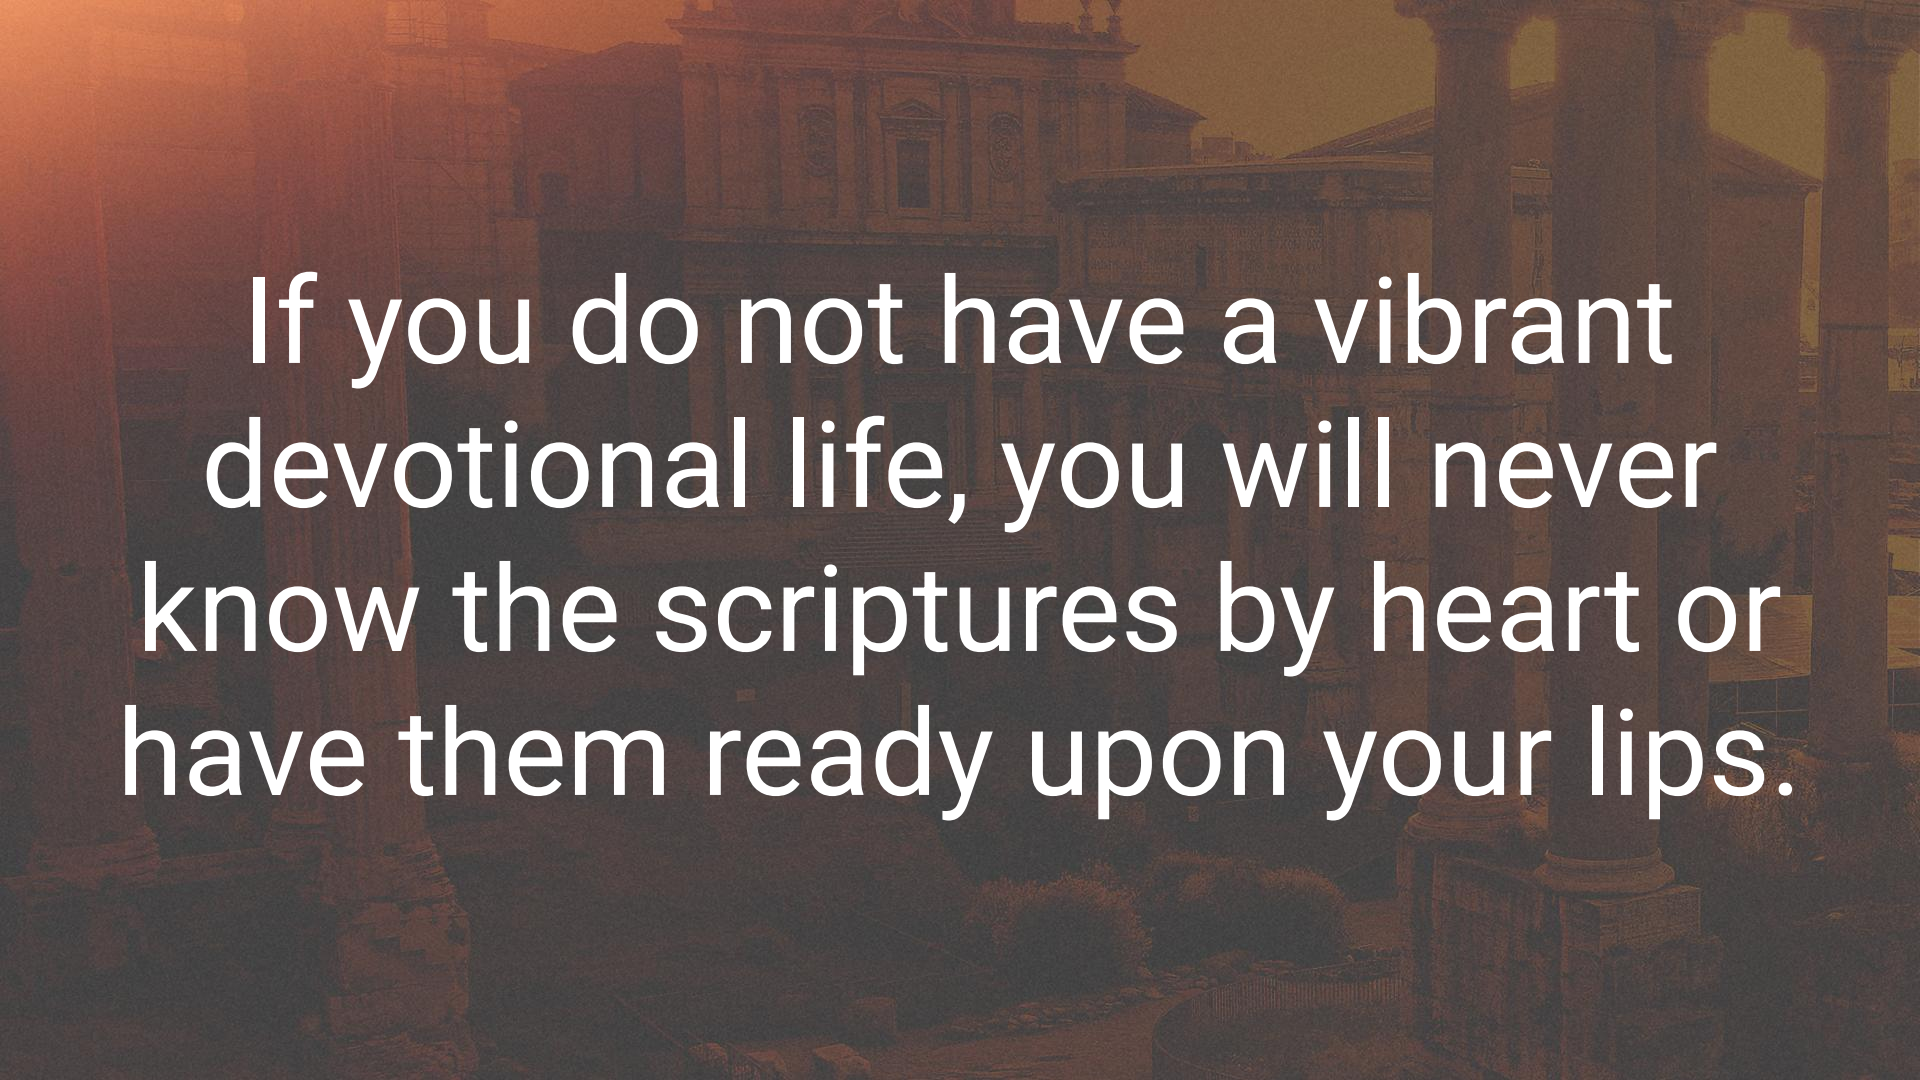

“It is also written: ‘Do not put the Lord
your God to the test.’”

MATTHEW 4:7

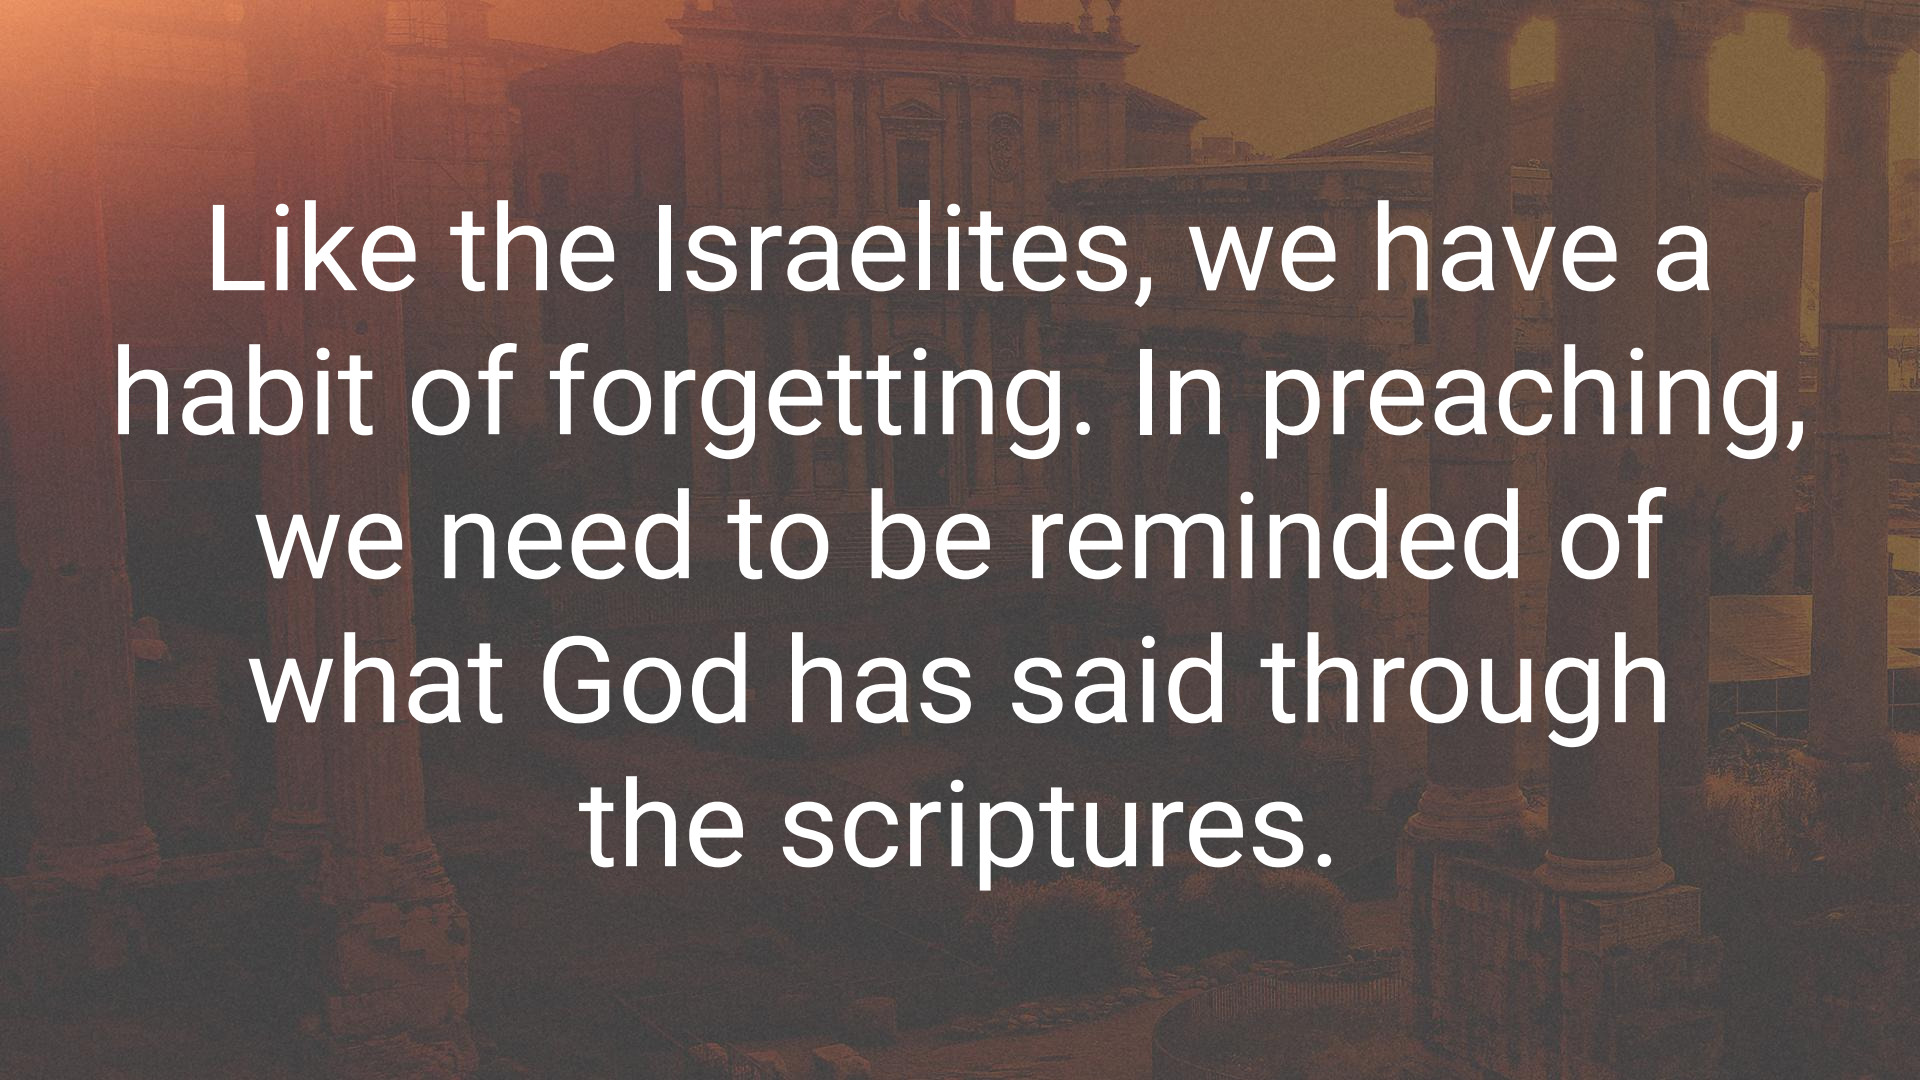

“For it is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.’”

MATTHEW 4:10

If you do not have a vibrant devotional life, you will never know the scriptures by heart or have them ready upon your lips.

The background of the image shows a sepia-toned photograph of ancient ruins. In the foreground, there are several large, weathered stone columns. In the background, a grand temple with a pediment and multiple columns is visible. The overall atmosphere is historical and somewhat somber.

Like the Israelites, we have a habit of forgetting. In preaching, we need to be reminded of what God has said through the scriptures.

You need to know what the scriptures say in order to say “It is written”.

¹¹ I have hidden your word in my heart
that I might not sin against you.

PSALM 119:11

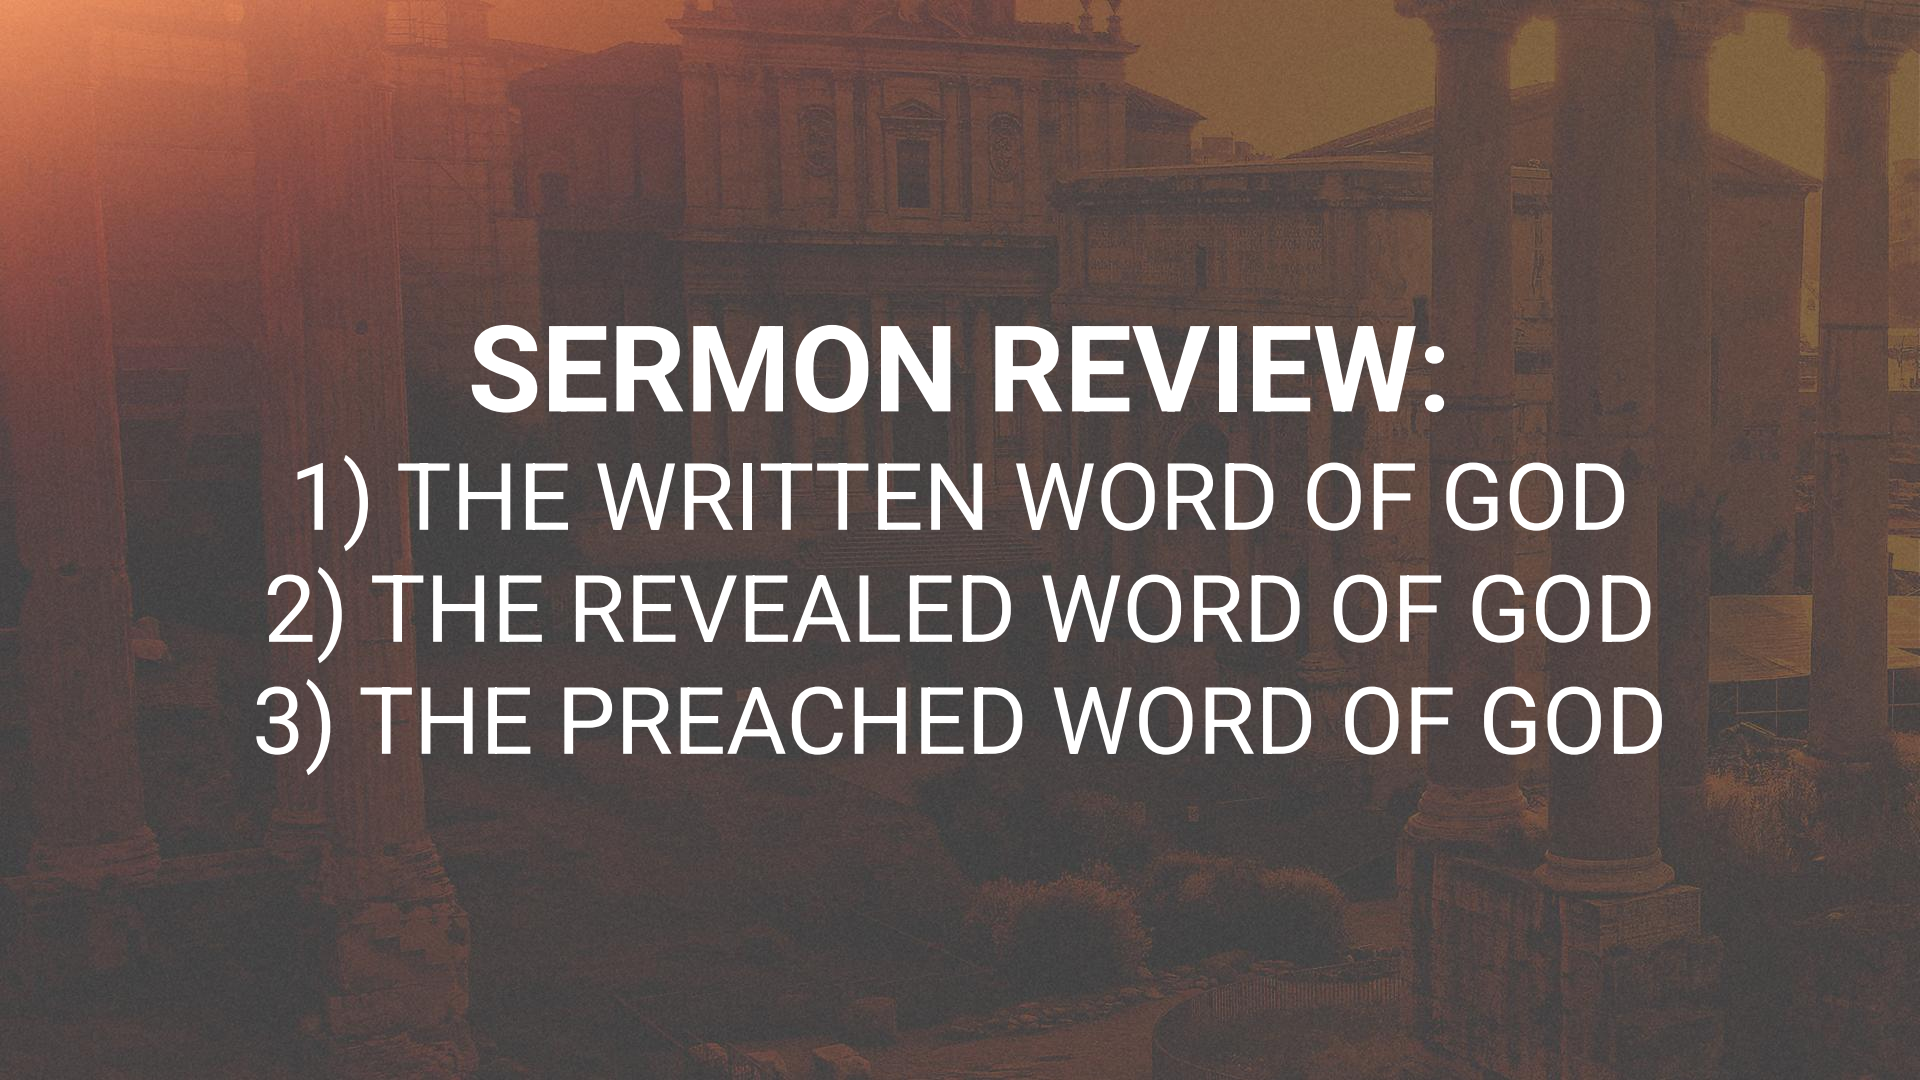

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp for my feet,
a light on my path.

PSALM 119:105

We have a wealth of wisdom
in the Written Word of God.
We have the best example in
the Revealed Word of God.
We have timely reminders in
the Proclaimed Word of God.
